Serving Library Users from Asia John Hickok, 2019-06-12 Asian populations are among some of the fastest growing cultural groups in the US While books on serving other target groups in libraries have been published e g disabled Latino seniors etc few books on serving library users of Asian heritage have been written Thus the timely need for this book Rather than a generalized overview of Asians as a whole this book has 24 separate chapters each on 24 specific Asian countries cultures of East Southeast and South Asia with a wealth of resources for understanding interacting with outreaching to and serving library users of each culture Resources include cultural guides both print and online language helps with sample library vocabulary Asian booksellers nationwide cultural groups professional literature and more Resources and suggestions are given for all three types of libraries public school and academic making this book valuable for all librarians The demographics of each Asian culture numbers and distribution plus history of immigration and international student enrollment is also featured As a bonus each chapter spotlights a US public school and academic library providing model outreach to Asian library users Additionally this book provides a detailed description and analysis of libraries in each of the 24 Asian countries The history development facilities conditions technology classification systems and more of public school and academic libraries are all discussed with detailed documentation Country conditions influencing libraries and library use are also described literacy levels reading cultures languages and writing systems educational systems and more Based on the author's 15 years of research and travels to Asia this work is a must have for all librarians

Education and Power in Contemporary Southeast Asia Azmil Tayeb, Rosalie Metro, Will Brehm, 2023-07-18 This book focuses on education and power in Southeast Asia and analyzes the ways in which education has been instrumentalized by state non state and private actors across this diverse region The book looks at how countries in Southeast Asia respond to the endogenous and exogenous influences in shaping their education systems Chapters observe and study the interplay between education and power in Southeast Asia which offers varying political social cultural religious and economic diversities The political systems in Southeast Asia range from near consolidated democracy in Indonesia to illiberal democracy in Singapore and Thailand to the communist regime in Laos to absolute monarchy in Brunei Structured in three parts i centralization and decentralization ii privatization and marketization and iii equity and justice these themes are discussed in single country and or multi country studies in the Southeast Asian region Bringing together scholars from and focused on Southeast Asia this book fills a gap in the literature on education in Southeast Asia

The Routledge Handbook of English Language Education in the Philippines Julius C. Martinez, Isabel Pefianco Martin, 2025-09-30 This handbook serves as a comprehensive resource on English language education in the Philippines addressing a wide range of issues including ideologies multilingualism identities policies methodologies assessment teacher education and curriculum Chapters cover a range of educational contexts from Luzon to Mindanao islands from basic to higher education and from formal to non formal schooling This book upholds the think and do otherwise perspective by problematizing contemporary paradigms and practices that operate from naturalized ideas inherited from the American colonizers This includes repairing pedagogies that redress injustices experienced by historically marginalized groups and hoping for possibilities and approaches to teaching and learning English that are just equitable and inclusive The six sections in the Handbook bring up conditions for thinking and doing otherwise pointing to ways in which genuine changes can start to happen Scholars from diverse backgrounds come together in this handbook to take collective ownership of English language education in the Philippines This ownership does not mean ignoring and disposing of the country's colonial past but reclaiming English language education as an ongoing project instead This handbook likewise demonstrates that such a project makes it possible for wider audiences to see that Global South scholars from and in the Philippines also have much to teach the rest of the world about thinking and doing otherwise and by extension problematizing repairing and hoping Given its scope and breadth the handbook is an invaluable reference for students pre service and in service teachers teacher educators researchers and policymakers interested in English language language education TESOL sociolinguistics and applied linguistics Global Perspectives on Education Research, Vol. II Liesel Ebersöhn, Ingrid Gogolin, 2023-05-31 Presenting a wide range of new research from World Education Research Association WERA affiliated scholars pertaining to democracy and education this volume including topics such as school readiness in Mongolia high stakes teacher evaluation policy in Japan and family and community involvement in global educational advocacy This collection arrives at a time of extreme global challenges leaving researchers teachers students families and policymakers without a baseline of how to act react and be proactive to stem the chronic flow of disruption to global education systems These challenges require researchers worldwide to consider how evidence can support individuals and systems to buffer against extreme global health distress and conflict whilst simultaneously supporting the continued functioning of education systems and processes Such processes must allow students teachers leaders administrators and members of the educational communities to retain positive self esteem and maintain supportive relationships and systems that provide the appropriate conditions for such processes Global Perspectives on Education Research pulls together contributions from different contexts and cultures to distil vistas and research results that can enlighten a worldwide community of researchers education professionals and practitioners as well as policymakers and local national or supra national decision makers This text is also the ideal companion for educators and leaders alike as they navigate the uncertainty within global health and social justice Cases of Mathematics Professional Development in East Asian Countries Swee Fong Ng, 2015-05-05 This book shows how video technology can be used to inform teachers personal practice and provides new data and real world case studies not covered by any previous book on the subject Initial chapters explore how practicing teachers can view their own recorded lessons and take steps to improve their methods while subsequent chapters examine how pre service and in service teachers can use recorded lessons to improve how they teach selected concepts or to better convey specific learning processes such as mathematical modeling and problem solving
