Excerpt from History of Louis XIV WE all live a double life the external life Which the world sees and the internal life of hopes and fears joys and griefs temptations and sins which the world sees not and of which it knows but little None lead this double life more emphatically than those who are seated upon thrones Though this historic sketch contains allusions to all the most important events in the reign of Louis XIV it has been the main object of the writer to develop the inner life of the palace to lead the reader into the interior of the Louvre the Tuileries Versailles and Marly and to exhibit the monarch as a man in the details of domestic privacy This can more easily be done in reference to Louis XIV Than any other king Very many of the prominent members of his household left their autobiographies filled with the minutest incidents of every day life About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books Find more at www.forgottenbooks.com This book is a reproduction of an important historical work Forgotten Books uses state of the art technology to digitally reconstruct the work preserving the original format whilst repairing imperfections present in the aged copy In rare cases an imperfection in the original such as a blemish or missing page may be replicated in our edition We do however repair the vast majority of imperfections successfully any imperfections that remain are intentionally left to preserve the state of such historical works      Siecle de Louis XIV Voltaire, 1868
