To whom it may concern (1 of 3 pages)
February 10, 2010

It is my deep honor to be able to write this letter of recommendation for Mr. Jayson Fetterley. I have known Jayson since Fall 2008, when I first interviewed him for participation in the University of Michigan Global Intercultural Experiences for Undergraduates (GIEU) program. This program involves two semesters of preparations culminating in a 3-4 week international trip to perform work or research while immersed in a different culture. I was the solely responsible Faculty Fellow for a trip to the Tetuwan Oyate (Sioux or Lakota) Territory, with home stays for students on the Pine Ridge Reservation (South Dakota). I conceived of the trip as a joke: commenting to the GIEU program director that I thought there were parts of the continental US that have active sovereignty disputes with U. S. government, and where, in fact, the culture is differs from our dominant culture more than the culture of other "foreign" countries. This eventually lead to my journey, accompanied by 12 undergraduates aging from 18 to 22 years old, for 4 weeks to what is undoubtedly the poorest, most isolating location in the continental US. This was the most difficult thing that I have ever done, including defending a doctoral dissertation at M. I. T. in the mid-1970s (first woman in my field to do so, and in the presence of substantial hostility). We were hosted by a leader of the traditional Treaty Council, which is distinct from the elected reservation government and recognized by many tribal members as the true, legitimate government of the people. She, the first woman leader in hundreds of years, is also spokesperson to the United Nations for the tribe. Our work was focussed on concerns about the environment, specifically past, present, and future uranium mining activities (I am a nuclear engineering professor in the #1 ranked nuclear engineering department in the US).

I could not have survived the trip without Jayson, the only male who travelled with us. He was one of two student leaders who mediated the uninterrupted trainwreck of issues.

Jayson was in a group of four who camped in two very small tents for 3 weeks, because the accommodations that were promised to the group did not materialize. They were literally surrounded by poisonous snakes, coyotes, and wildcats, not to mention gnats and mosquitoes and uncomfortable weather (from hot to cold). One of the four students living in the tents, who had never been camping, was terrified. Jayson held that group together repeatedly. A severe thunderstorm completely destroyed one of the tents at the end of the third week, and the group moved into a tin shack that became available that had no electricity or running water, except for the holes in the roof when it rained. The single-room shack was not much bigger than the tents, and much smaller than a travel trailer.
