Amadi, 2022-03-24 This book explores how law and policy makers within the Southern African Development Community regional structure might reform the legal and regulatory frameworks to best capitalise the benefits of the movement of people drawing lessons from other experienced jurisdictions by critically engaging with the regulatory efforts and approaches in regions such as the European Union the Economic Community of West African States and the East African Community to propose a revised approach to migration governance and practice in the SADC Deeper regional integration allows citizens to move freely across national boundaries and services are a rising component of global trade and investment However global trade in services is stifled by barriers at and behind the border These barriers make it difficult for service providers from developing regions to access key markets in their preferred modes of service trade Against this background this book aims to take the discussion on furthering regional integration and trade through the movement of people by tackling issues on stringent immigration policies arguing that having a vibrant and rewarding trade in services will require an approach towards the unrestricted movement of persons     The Metaphysics of Market Power George Raitt,2019-05-02 Australian competition law has just emerged from a significant period of reform which has seen controversial changes to the legal test to distinguish between normal competitive conduct and conduct that should be condemned The controversy continues arguably because the traditional legal conception of market power does not provide a useful standard in real world markets This important new book offers a radical interpretation of market power based on the power to manipulate Seeing it in this way allows for positive and normative standards within which to frame a legal theory of liability for misuse of that power The book provides suggestions to improve the forensic assessment of conduct that should be condemned as misuse of market power     Forthcoming Books Rose Arny,2003-04     National Union Catalog ,1983 Includes entries for maps and atlases     Subject Guide to Books in Print ,1993     National Union Catalog, 1982 ,1983     Business Books and Serials in Print ,1977
