Ryan Waters,Hudson Lindenberger,2022-10-01 On May 6 2014 Ryan Waters accomplished something that has not been replicated since He and fellow explorer Eric Larsen stood atop the geographic North Pole after 53 grueling days battling their way over an ever melting sheet of ice that fought against them the entire way By reaching the pole the two adventurers became the last persons to date to complete an unsupported trip to the North Pole from land The ice sheet that used to link the Pole to land in Canada once so thick and sturdy has so degraded over the last few decades that explorers have had to abandon any attempts to cross it While reaching the North Pole was monumental for Waters it also was the final piece needed to complete a project that he had been persistently working on for over a decade the True Adventurers Grand Slam standing atop the Seven Summits and skiing full length unsupported and unassisted expeditions to both the North and South Poles His accomplishment that day made him just the 9th person and first American to gain entry into this exclusive club Never one to embrace the easy path Waters seemed to thrive in battling through whatever the fates threw at him sometimes even deliberately seeking out struggles Despite having little experience cross country skiing he decided to go to the South Pole Eschewing the more typical route he and partner Cecilie Skog completed the first traverse of Antarctica without the use of resupplies or kites Skiing from Berkner Island in the Weddell Sea via the South Pole to the Ross Ice Shelf the pair skied for 70 days and covered 1200 miles 9 years prior to the much publicized 2019 race across Antarctica To this day the two hold the record for the longest unsupported crossing of the continent without the use of kites How Waters ended up standing atop the North Pole on that fateful day is a story of hope perseverance faith and a fair share of dumb luck From his youth traipsing around the Georgia hills to his time leading expeditions around the Himalayas including five summits of Everest Waters has always seemed to stumble into the next fortuitous step of his journey often ending up in the most unlikely places This is tempered by the fact that early in Waters outdoor career he learned to live by a simple credo you have to make things happen for yourself At the beginning of his climbing career he was consumed by passion for the mountains every decision was leading to the next mountaineering challenge Eventually giving up a stable career as a geologist he had a self described mid 20 s crisis left his 401K and comfortable salary for living out of his truck and 40 dollars a day as a part time climbing instructor Following his dream of a life of adventure in exchange for a life of obeying societal norms he set out to build a mountain resume that would enable him to circle the Earth and work as a mountain guide in the Himalayas and beyond After almost two decades of hard expeditions around the planet his experiences include being on a hijacked airplane in Russia rescue of injured climbers in the Karakoram Himalaya of Pakistan the Everest Base Camp earthquake disaster narrowly missing out on the K2 2008 tragedy near misses with avalanches the deaths of close climbing partners close encounters with Polar Bears on the Arctic Ocean relationships with fellow adventurers and much more

My 1001 Nights Alice Morrison, 2019-04-18 TV presenter writer and adventurer Alice Morrison gives her own unique and personal insight into Morocco her home for 1001 nights When Alice Morrison headed out to Morocco it was to take on one of the most daunting challenges to run in the famous Marathon des Sables Little did she expect to end up living there But as soon as she settled in a flat in Marrakech she was won over by the people the spectacular scenery and the ancient alleyways of the souk Soon she was hiking over the Atlas mountains joining nomads to sample their timeless way of life as they crossed the Sahara desert and finding peace in a tranquil oasis Despite more than 10 million tourists coming to Morocco each year there is remarkably little that has been written about its people their customs and the extraordinary range of places to visit from bustling markets to vast empty deserts Alice makes sure she samples it all and as she does she provides a stunning portrait of a beautiful country As a lone woman she often attracts plenty of curiosity but her willingness to participate whether thigh deep in pigeon droppings in a tannery or helping out herding goats ensures that she is welcomed everywhere by a people who are among the most hospitable on the planet Alice came to fame with her BBC2 series Morocco to Timbuktu and now she joins the ranks of great travel writers who can bring a country vividly to life and instantly transport the reader to a sunnier place If you re thinking of going to Morocco or you want to recall your time there My 1001 Nights is the ideal book
