Educational Technology and Pedagogic Encounters Yusef Waghid, 2016-07-15 This book looks at some of the underlying theories of educational technology means and ways in which this technology is guided in practice ends The authors are intent on producing ends that prepare students to undertake new analyses and evaluations that can result in new possibilities for democratic action Emphasis is on their understanding of and position within educational technology as opposed to using or applying educational technology The work is not written from the point of view that their embeddedness within educational technology has a utilitarian end in mind but rather that their situatedness within educational technology a practice in itself leaves open possibilities for new ways of understanding democratic education This book is organised into six interrelated themes that work towards the cultivation of educational technology as a human practice which guides pedagogic encounters on the basis of taking risks in relation to which the unexpected unimaginable is always possible Quality education

Muchativugwa L. Hove, Martha Matashu, 2021-11-30 This book investigates the intersections between education social justice gendered violence and human rights in South African schools and universities The rich and multifarious tapestry of scholarship and literature emanating from South African classrooms provides a fascinating lens through which we can understand the complex consequences of the economies of education social justice imperatives gendered violence in the lives of women and children and marginalised communities The scholarship in the book challenges readers to imagine alternative futures predicated on the transformational capacity of a democratic South Africa Contributors to this volume examine the many ways in which social justice and gendered violence mirror express project and articulate the larger phenomenon of human rights violations in Africa and how in turn the discourse of human rights informs the ways in which we articulate interrogate conceptualise enact and interpret quality education The book also wrestles with the linguistic contradictions and ambiguities in the articulation of quality education in public and private spaces This book is essential reading for scholars seeking a solid grounding in exploring quality education the instances of epistemic disobedience the political implications of place and power and human rights in theory and practice Annual Report South Africa.
