Intelligent Transport Systems, From Research and Development to the Market Uptake Ana Lúcia Martins, João C. Ferreira, Alexander Kocian, Vera Costa, 2021-03-10 This book constitutes the proceedings of the 4th International Conference on Intelligent Transport Systems INTSYS 2020 which was held in December 2020 Due to COVID 19 pandemic the conference was held virtually With the globalization of trade and transportation and the consequent multi modal solutions used additional challenges are faced by organizations and countries Intelligent Transport Systems make transport safer more efficient and more sustainable by applying information and communication technologies to all transportation modes The 16 revised full papers in this book were selected from 38 submissions and are organized in three thematic sessions on mobility applications simulation and prediction Nanotechnology and Microelectronics: Global Diffusion, Economics and Policy Ekekwe, Ndubuisi, 2010-06-30 This book assesses the state of nanotechnology and microelectronics and examines many issues such as climate change trade innovation diffusion etc with a theme focused on facilitating the structures for the adoption and penetration of the technologies into developing nations Provided by publisher Identity and Development Paul van der Grijp, 2021-11-22 Identity and Development presents a remarkable record of Tonga s increasing participation in the modern global economy and provides anthropologists economists and historians with a detailed case study that bears heavily on major issues of the day both practically and theoretically The book focuses on issues of identity entrepreneurship and the intricacies of development and addresses the question How in the current state of the economy can a Tongan become a successful grower This question is set against the background of a boom in cash cropping sparked by a burgeoning export trade with Japan Historical Dictionary of Guinea Mohamed Saliou Camara, Thomas O'Toole, Janice E. Baker, 2013-11-07 The most significant thing about Guinea is its potential It is strategically located in West Africa with a well educated and hardworking population and endowed with considerable natural resources indeed enough to make it reasonably affluent if properly utilized But this potential has never really been tapped due mainly to bad politics with military men following a charismatic politician until finally democracy has been achieved So more than half a century after achieving independence the question remains unanswered which way will Guinea turn This fifth edition of Historical Dictionary of Guinea covers the full scope of Guinea s history This is done through a chronology an introductory essay appendixes and an extensive bibliography The dictionary section has over 800 cross referenced entries on key events leaders governmental international religious and other private organizations policies political movements and parties economic elements and many other areas that have shaped the country s trajectory This book is an excellent access point for students researchers and anyone wanting to know more about Guinea Textual Life Wendell Marsh, 2025-10-14 Textual Life is a groundbreaking book that recasts the role of knowledge in the making of a colonial and postcolonial nation It makes a case for a new literary and intellectual historical approach to Islam in Africa The Senegalese Muslim scholar Shaykh Musa Kamara 1864 1945 wrote History of the

Blacks a monumental history of West Africa in a time when colonial discourses asserted that Africans lacked both writing and history He sought to publish a bilingual Arabic and French edition of the book by working with humanists in colonial institutions but the project was ultimately undermined by the disregard of the French state Textual Life considers Kamara s story as a parable about the fate of the humanities amid epistemic and technological change Wendell H Marsh argues that Kamara s scholarship reflected what he calls the textual attitude an orientation to the world mediated by reading Colonial humanists shared this attitude even while upholding racial and religious hierarchies and they took an interest in African texts and traditions The bureaucrats and technocrats who succeeded them however disdained such dialogue for reasons that bear a striking resemblance to the algorithmic antihumanism that is ascendant today Drawing on Kamara s body of work colonial archival documents and postcolonial knowledge production within Senegal Textual Life offers a decolonial vision of the humanities By engaging with African and Muslim intellectual resources Marsh shows how thinkers like Kamara who were subjected to colonialism can help us find a future after empire
