The Cultural Defense of Nations Liav Orgad, 2015-11-05 The Cultural Defense of Nations presents a timely thought provoking thesis on some of the most pressing issues of our time global immigration majority groups and national identity Never in human history has so much attention been paid to human movement Global migration yields demographic shifts of historical significance profoundly shaking up world politics as has been seen in the refugee crisis the Brexit referendum and the 2016 U S election The Cultural Defense of Nations addresses one of the greatest challenges facing liberalism today is a liberal state justified in restricting immigration and access to citizenship in order to protect its majority culture Liberal theorists and human rights advocates recognize the rights of minorities to maintain their unique cultural identity but assume that majorities have neither a need for similar rights nor a moral ground for defending them The majority culture so the argument goes can take care of itself However with more than 250 million immigrants worldwide majority groups increasingly seek to protect what they consider to be their national identity In recent years liberal democracies have introduced proactive immigration and citizenship policies that are designed to defend the majority culture This book shifts the focus from the prevailing discussion of cultural minority rights and for the first time addresses the cultural rights of majorities It proposes a new approach by which liberal democracies can welcome immigrants without fundamentally changing their cultural heritage forsaking their liberal traditions or slipping into extreme nationalism Disregarding the topic of cultural majority rights is not only theoretically wrong but also politically unwise With forms of majority nationalism rising and the growing popularity of extreme right wing parties in the West time has come to liberally address the new challenge

Heritage and School Language Literacy Development in Migrant Children Raphael Berthele, Amelia Lambelet, 2017-11-15 This book discusses literacy development in heritage language speakers and presents the results of four different quantitative studies that investigate the transfer of literacy skills in bi and multilingual language development The empirical studies focus on different populations of pupils most of them located in various parts of Switzerland and emphasise the potential residing in shared or transferred resources between their heritage languages and the languages spoken in the region to which their family has immigrated The goal of all studies was to gain an understanding of the factors both linguistic and non linguistic in nature that contribute to the development of language skills in both the heritage and school languages Theoretical assumptions are put to the test via hypothesis testing and the generally shared assumptions on bilingual education are questioned based on the data Furthermore methodological problems in the investigation of linguistic interdependence are discussed This book contributes to the scholarly investigation of potential beneficial effects in academic proficiency across languages in migrant children
