Shepherds are natural protectors and advanced training can turn them into formidable guard dogs. They can be trained to detect drugs, explosives, and even diseases. Advanced training can also teach them to perform complex tasks such as search and rescue, tracking, and obedience competition. Thirdly, advanced training strengthens the bond between the dog and the owner. Dogs are social animals, and by training together, the owner and the dog develop a deep and meaningful relationship. Advanced training requires a lot of time and effort, and the dog learns to trust and rely on the owner. This bond makes the dog more obedient and responsive, which makes training even more effective. Finally, advanced training can be a fun and rewarding experience for both the owner and the dog. German Shepherds are intelligent and enjoy learning new things. They thrive on challenges and enjoy being praised for their accomplishments. Advanced training allows the owner to bond with the dog while teaching them new skills and tricks.
