Credit Summary

your credit report and credit history are valuable tools that lenders use when determining if they will extend you credit or your credit-worthiness. Lenders typically look for scores that are higher versus lower. It's important to maintain a close eye on your credit report to ensure all reported information is accurate. In the event that there is a negative or erroneous item on your credit report then there are several ways you can contact the reporting credit bureau to have the item investigated or removed.
