Holidays For Madrasa 2015

Abdoulaye Sounaye, André Chappatte

Holidays For Madrasa 2015:

What Is a Madrasa? Ebrahim Moosa, 2015-04-06 Taking us inside the world of the madrasa the most common type of school for religious instruction in the Islamic world Ebrahim Moosa provides an indispensable resource for anyone seeking to understand orthodox Islam in global affairs Focusing on postsecondary level religious institutions in the Indo Pakistan heartlands Moosa explains how a madrasa can simultaneously be a place of learning revered by many and an institution feared by many others especially in a post 9 11 world Drawing on his own years as a madrasa student in India Moosa describes in fascinating detail the daily routine for teachers and students today He shows how classical theological legal and Qur'anic texts are taught and he illuminates the history of ideas and politics behind the madrasa system Addressing the contemporary political scene in a clear eyed manner Moosa introduces us to madrasa leaders who hold diverse and conflicting perspectives on the place of religion in society Some admit that they face intractable problems and challenges including militancy others Moosa says hide their heads in the sand and fail to address the crucial issues of the day Offering practical suggestions to both madrasa leaders and U S policymakers for reform and understanding Moosa demonstrates how madrasas today still embody the highest aspirations and deeply felt needs of traditional Muslims The Decade in Tory

Russell Jones, 2022-10-27 In 2020 the United Kingdom reached a bewildering milestone ten successive years of Conservative rule In that decade there were three prime ministers each in turn described as the worst leader we ever had ministerial resignations by the hundred and an unrelenting stream of ineffectual divisive bum slurry oozing from 10 Downing Street The Decade in Tory is an inglorious rollicking and entirely true account of ten years of demonstrable lies relentless incompetence epic waste serial corruption official police investigations anti democratic practices abuse of power dereliction of duty and hundreds of thousands of avoidable deaths With his signature scathing wit Russell Jones breaks down the government's interminable failures year by year covering everything from David Cameron's pledge to tackle inequality which reduced UK life expectancy for the first time since 1841 through the bewildering storm of lies and betrayals that led to Brexit devastating education cuts serial mismanagement of the NHS and Boris Johnson's calamitous response to the Covid 19 pandemic It will leave you gasping and wondering can things possibly get any worse Indian Muslims and Citizenship Julten

Abdelhalim, 2015-10-05 Through the creation of post colonial citizenship India adopted a hybridisation of specific secular and western conception of citizenship In this democratic framework Indian Muslims are observed on how they make use of the spaces and channels to accommodate their Islamic identity within a secular one This book analyses how the socio political context shapes citizens' perceptions of multiple variables such as their sense of political efficacy agency conception of citizenship rights and belief in democracy Based on extensive surveys and interviews and through presenting and investigating the various meanings of jihad the author explores the usage of non Eurocentric conceptual approaches to the study of postcolonial and Muslim societies in particular the meaning it carries in the psyche of the Muslim community She argues that through means of argumentative and spiritual jih d Indian Muslims fight their battle towards a realisation of citizenship ideals despite the unfavourable conditions of intra and inter community conflicts Presenting new examinations of Islamic identity and citizenship in contemporary India this book will be a useful contribution to the study of South Asian Studies Religion Islam and Race and Ethnicity For God and Country Peter C. Mentzel, 2021-03-11 Religion and nationalism are both powerful and important markers of individual identity but the relationship between the two has been a source of considerable debate Much if not most of the early work done in Nationalism Studies has been based at least implicitly on the idea that religion as a genealogical carrier of identity was displaced with the advent of secular modernity which was caused by nationalism Or to put it another way national identity and its ideological manifestation nationalism filled the void left in people s self identification as religion retreated in the face of modernity Since at least the late 1990s this view has been increasingly challenged by scholars trying to account for the apparent persistence of religious identities Perhaps even more interestingly scholars of both religion and nationalism have noted that these two kinds of self identification while sometimes being tense as the earlier models explained are also frequently coexistent or even mutually supportive This collection of essays explores the current thinking about the relationship between religion and nationalism from a variety of perspectives using a number of different case studies What all these approaches have in common is their interest in complicating our understandings of nationalism as a primarily secular phenomenon by bringing religion back into the discussion AKASHVANI All India Radio (AIR), New Delhi ,1983-12-01 Akashvani English is a programme journal of ALL INDIA RADIO it was formerly known as The Indian Listener It used to serve the listener as a bradshaw of broadcasting and give listener the useful information in an interesting manner about programmes who writes them take part in them and produce them along with photographs of performing artists It also contains the information of major changes in the policy and service of the organisation The Indian Listener fortnightly programme journal of AIR in English published by The Indian State Broadcasting Service Bombay started on 22 December 1935 and was the successor to the Indian Radio Times in English which was published beginning in July 16 of 1927 From 22 August 1937 onwards it used to published by All India Radio New Delhi From 1950 it was turned into a weekly journal Later The Indian listener became Akashvani English w e f January 5 1958 It was made fortnightly journal again w e f July 1 1983 NAME OF THE JOURNAL AKASHVANI LANGUAGE OF THE JOURNAL English DATE MONTH YEAR OF PUBLICATION 01 DECEMBER 1983 PERIODICITY OF THE JOURNAL Fortnightly NUMBER OF PAGES 48 VOLUME NUMBER Vol LIV No 37 BROADCAST PROGRAMME SCHEDULE PUBLISHED PAGE NOS 14 43 ARTICLE 1 Crusade Against Corruption 2 Indian Woman Then and Now 3 Dental Care 4 Relevance of Religion In The Modern Age 5 Book Review Ten Twentieth Century Indian Poets Edited by R Parthasarathy The Ethical Imagination by Dr Sant Singh Bal AUTHOR 1 V Apparao 2 Leela Nawaz 3 Dr G R Bhat 4 Dr V S Naravane 5 O P Sharma KEYWORDS 1 Causes Preventive Measures 2 Women s Progress 3 Periodical Check up 4 Negative Influence Religion And

Islamic Reform in Twentieth-Century Africa Roman Loimeier,2016-09-08 The first comprehensive analysis of Muslim movements of reform in modern sub Saharan AfricaBased on twelve case studies Senegal Mali Nigeria Niger Chad Sudan Ethiopia Somalia Kenya Tanzania Zanzibar and the Comoros this book looks at patterns and peculiarities of different traditions of Islamic reform Considering both Sufi and Salafi oriented movements in their respective historical contexts it stresses the importance of the local context to explain the different trajectories of development The book studies the social religious and political impact of these reform movements in both historical and contemporary times and asks why some have become successful as popular mass movements while others failed to attract substantial audiences It also considers jihad minded movements in contemporary Mali northern Nigeria and Somalia and looks at modes of transnational entanglement of movements of reform Against the background of a general inquiry into what constitutes areform the text responds to the question of what areform actually means for Muslims in contemporary Africa Key featuresBiographies of reformist scholars complement the textCase studies are placed in the context of the dynamics of areform in the larger world of IslamAddresses the importance of trans national entanglements and their formative powerFocuses on the dynamics of social and religious development the political dynamics of Islamic areform and issues of youth generational change and gender

Intersections of Tourism, Migration, and Exile Natalia Bloch,Kathleen M. Adams,2022-12-30 This book challenges the classic and often tacit compartmentalization of tourism migration and refugee studies by exploring the intersections of these forms of spatial mobility each prompts distinctive images and moral reactions yet they often intertwine overlap and influence one another Tourism migration and exile evoke widely varying policies diverse popular reactions and contrasting imagery What are the ramifications of these siloed conceptions for people on the move To what extent do gender class ethnic and racial global inequalities shape moral discourses surrounding people s movements This book presents 12 predominantly ethnographic case studies from around the world and a pandemic focused conclusion that address these issues In recounting and juxtaposing stories of refugees and migrants returns marriage migrants voluntourists migrant retirees migrant tourism workers and entrepreneurs mobile investors and professionals and refugees pursuing educational mobility this book cultivates more nuanced insights into intersecting forms of mobility Ultimately this work promises to foster not only empathy but also greater resolve for forging trails toward mobility justice This accessibly written volume will be essential to scholars and students in critical migration tourism and refugee studies including anthropologists sociologists human geographers and researchers in political science and cultural studies The book will also be of interest to non academic professionals and general readers interested in contemporary mobilities Shari'at in the Russian Empire Sartori Paolo Sartori,2020-01-07

This book looks at how Islamic law was practiced in Russia from the conquest of the empire's first Muslim territories in the mid 1500s to the Russian Revolution of 1917 when the empire's Muslim population had exceeded 20 million It focuses on the training of Russian Muslim jurists the debates over legal authority within Muslim communities and the relationship between Islamic law and customary law Based upon difficult to access sources written in a variety of languages Arabic Chaghatay Kazakh Persian Tatar it offers scholars of Russian history Islamic history and colonial history an account of Islamic law in Russia of the same quality and detail as the scholarship currently available on Islam in the British and French colonial empires The Dynamics of Conflict and Peace in Contemporary South Asia Minoru Mio,Kazuya Nakamizo,Tatsuro Fujikura,2020-12-23

This book engages with the concept true value and function of democracy in South Asia against the background of real social conditions for the promotion of peaceful development in the region In the book the issue of peaceful social development is defined as the conditions under which the maintenance of social order and social development is achieved not by violent compulsion but through the negotiation of intentions or interests among members of society The book assesses the issue of peaceful social development and demonstrates that the maintenance of such conditions for long periods is a necessary requirement for the political economic and cultural development of a society and state Chapters argue that through the post colonial historical trajectory of South Asia it has become commonly understood that democracy is the better if not the best political system and value for that purpose Additionally the book claims that while democratization and the deepening of democracy have been broadly discussed in the region the peace that democracy is supposed to promote has been in serious danger especially in the 21st century A timely survey and re evaluation of democracy and peaceful development in South Asia this book will be of interest to academics in the field of South Asian Studies Peace and Conflict Studies and Asian Politics and Security Islam and Muslim Life in West Africa Abdoulaye Sounaye,André Chappatte,2022-12-19

The book offers an examination of issues institutions and actors that have become central to Muslim life in the region Focusing on leadership authority law gender media aesthetics radicalization and cooperation it offers insights into processes that reshape power structures and the experience of being Muslim It makes room for perspectives from the region in an academic world shaped by scholarship mostly from Europe and America Soviet and Muslim Eren Tasar,2017-11-01 Central Asia was the sole Muslim region of the former Russian Empire that lacked a centralized Islamic organization or muftiate When Soviet leader Joseph Stalin created such a body for the region as part of his religious reforms during World War II he acknowledged that the Muslim faith could enjoy some legal protection under Communist rule From a skeletal and disorganized body run by one family of Islamic scholars out of a modest house in Tashkent's old city this muftiate acquired great political importance in the eyes of Soviet policymakers and equally significant symbolic significance for many Muslims Relying on recently declassified Central Asian archival sources most of them never seen before by historians Eren Tasar argues that Islam did not merely survive the decades from World War II until the Soviet collapse in 1991 but actively shaped the political and social context of Soviet Central Asia Muslim figures institutions and practices evolved in response to the social and political reality of Communist rule Through an analysis that spans all aspects of Islam under Soviet rule from debates about religion inside the Communist Party to the muftiate's efforts to acquire control over mosques across Central Asia changes in Islamic practices and dogma and overseas propaganda targeting the Islamic World Soviet and Muslim offers a radical new reading of Islam's resilience and evolution under atheism Neo-Ottomanism and the Politics of

Emotions in Turkey Nagehan Tokdoğan,2024-06-17 This open access book explores the politics of emotions under the ruling Justice and Development Party in Turkey and the leadership of President Recep Tayyip Erdoğan It examines how emotional politics and particularly the use of a Neo Ottomanist narrative created a new national mood and contributed to the durability of Erdoğan's rule The author analyses the interactions between national narratives symbolic politics and emotions She argues that these interactions have formed the basis of Erdoğan's popular support for more than 20 years The book is a valuable resource for scholars of political science and sociology as well as policymakers interested in the rise of authoritarianism in Turkey Modern Sufis and the State Katherine Pratt Ewing,Rosemary R. Corbett,2020-08-25 Sufism is typically thought of as the mystical side of Islam In recent years it has been held up as a supposedly peaceful alternative to the spread of forms of Islam associated with violence an embodiment of democratic ideals of tolerance and pluralism Are Sufis in fact as otherworldly and apolitical as this stereotype suggests Modern Sufis and the State brings together a range of scholars including anthropologists historians and religious studies specialists to challenge common assumptions that are made about Sufism today Focusing on India and Pakistan within a broader global context this book provides locally grounded accounts of how Sufis in South Asia have engaged in politics from the colonial period to the present Contributors foreground the effects and unintended consequences of efforts to link Sufism with the spread of democracy and consider what roles scholars and governments have played in the making of twenty first century Sufism They critique the belief that Salafism and Sufism are antithetical offering nuanced analyses of the diversity multivalence and local embeddedness of Sufi political engagements and self representations in Pakistan and India Essays question the portrayal of Sufi shrines as sites of toleration peace and harmony exploring cases of tension and conflict A wide ranging interdisciplinary collection Modern Sufis and the State is a timely call to think critically about the role of public discourse in shaping perceptions of Sufism
