Hoop Dreams 3 Court Hustle:

Experiencing Cities Mark Hutter, 2015-12-22 This extraordinary text for undergraduate urban students is a reflection of Mark Hutter's academic interests in urban sociology and his life-long passion for experiencing city life. His deep academic roots in the Chicago School of Sociology help inform and appreciate the variety of urban structures and processes and their effect on the everyday lives of people living in cities. This text however extends the Chicago School perspective by combining its traditions with a social psychological perspective derived from symbolic interaction and also with a macro level examination of social organization, social change, stratification and power in the urban context informed by political economy. This entirely new 3rd Edition has a global outlook on city life and a visual presentation unmatched among books in this genre.

A Sense of Duty Quang Pham, 2007-12-18 A memoir by a former Vietnamese refugee who became a U.S. Marine. Quang Pham's A Sense of Duty is an affecting story of fate, hope and the aftermath of the most divisive war the United States has ever fought. This heartfelt salute to the spirit of America is also the account of the author's reunion with his long absent father Hoa Pham himself a devoted officer who saw combat firsthand as a South Vietnamese fighter pilot. Hoa's revelations about his wartime experience leave Quang even more conflicted about his service in the Marines in the first Gulf War and after years of struggling to reconnect with each other and the homeland they left behind the two set out on a final profound quest to make sense of the war in Vietnam. Tracing Quang Pham's uniquely spirited yet agonizing journey from his experiences as an uprooted refugee to his becoming a combat aviator A Sense of Duty reveals the turmoil of a family torn apart and reunited by the fortunes of war. It is an American journey like no other.

Living Through the Hoop Reuben A. Buford May, 2008 May tells the absorbing story of the hopes and struggles of one high school basketball team the Northeast High School Knights in Northeast Georgia and the powerful role that a basketball team can play in keeping young African American kids straight away from street life focused on completing high school and possibly even attending college. New York Magazine, 1995-02-20 New York Magazine was born in 1968 after a run as an insert of the New York Herald Tribune and quickly made a place for itself as the trusted resource for readers across the country. With award winning writing and photography covering everything from politics and food to theater and fashion the magazine's consistent mission has been to reflect back to its audience the energy and excitement of the city itself while celebrating New York as both a place and an idea.

Outside Shot Keith O'Brien, 2013-01-15 Outside Shot is the acclaimed true story of a small town team and an American community struggling for redemption called a reporting tour de force and utterly gripping by The New York Times. The Cardinals of Scott County High School were beloved once and with good reason. For years the boys and their legendary coach gave fans in central Kentucky deep in the heart of basketball country just what they wanted: state titles, national rankings and countless trips to Kentucky's one of a kind state tournament where winning and losing can change a young man's life. But in 2009 with the economy sputtering, anger rising and Scott County mired in a two year drought fans had begun to lose faith in the boys They weren't the heroes of Scott County anymore they were mini athlete gods haunted by dreams burdened by expectations and desperate to escape through the only means they knew basketball In Outside Shot Keith O'Brien takes us on an epic journey from the bluegrass hills and broken homes of rural America to inner city Lexington to Kentucky's most hallowed hall Rupp Arena where high school tournament games are known to draw twenty thousand people and where for the players and their fans it feels like anything is possible The narrative follows four of the team's top seniors and their coach as they struggle to redeem themselves in the face of impossible odds once loyal fans now turned against them parents who demand athletic greatness and scouts who weigh their every move It delves deep inside the lives of the boys their families and their community divided along lines of race politics religion and sports And it chronicles not only the high stakes world of Kentucky basketball but the battle for the soul of small town America A story of inspiration and poignancy filled with moments of drama on and off the court Outside Shot shows that if it's hard to win basketball games it can be even harder to win at life itself Chicago Tribune Index ,2006 Heart Over Height Nate Robinson with Jon Finkel,2014-05-30 Heart Over Height tells the motivational story of how three time NBA Slam Dunk Champion Nate Robinson combined an unstoppable will with dogged determination to achieve his goals and how those traits can apply to anyone facing their own seemingly insurmountable obstacles New York ,2005 Mark Lane Express ,1900 The Capital of Basketball John McNamara,2019-11-03 In The Capital of Basketball John McNamara offers the first ever comprehensive look at the great high school players teams and coaches that make the DC metropolitan area second to none in its contributions to the game This fascinating highly illustrated history is perfect for basketball fans or anyone interested in Washington DC history
