How Much Is An Oil Change At Walmart 2012:

The 360° Corporation Sarah Kaplan, 2019-09-03 Companies are increasingly facing intense pressures to address stakeholder demands from every direction consumers want socially responsible products employees want meaningful work investors now screen on environmental social and governance criteria clicktivists create social media storms over company missteps CEOs now realize that their companies must be social as well as commercial actors but stakeholder pressures often create trade offs with demands to deliver financial performance to shareholders How can companies respond while avoiding simple greenwashing or pinkwashing This book lays out a roadmap for organizational leaders who have hit the limits of the supposed win win of shared value to explore how companies can cope with real trade offs innovating around them or even thriving within them Suggesting that the shared value mindset may actually get in the way of progress bestselling author Sarah Kaplan shows in The 360 Corporation how trade offs rather than being confusing or problematic can actually be the source of organizational resilience and transformation

The Secure and the Dispossessed Nick Buxton, Ben Hayes, 2015-11-20 While the world's scientists and many of its inhabitants despair at the impact of climate change corporate and military leaders see nothing but opportunities For them melting ice caps mean newly accessible fossil fuels borders to be secured from climate refugees social conflicts to be managed and more failed states in which to intervene They are securing their assets at the expense of the planet and its inhabitants The Secure and the Dispossessed looks at these deadly approaches with a critical eye It also considers the flip side that the legitimacy of the elite is under unprecedented pressure from resistance by communities to resource grabs to those creating new ecological and socially just models for managing our energy food and water Topics covered include geoengineering militarism refugee protection greenwashing and the agricultural crisis among others Adaptation and resilience to a climate changed world is desperately needed but the form it will take will affect all of our futures

Prosperity or Predicament? Decoding Certification Challenges in Malaysia's Palm Oil Industry Serina Rahman, Lee Poh Onn, 2024-03-22 Oil palm was brought to Malaysia from West Africa as part of British colonial agricultural development initiatives but the refining of crude palm oil only began in the 1970s as part of the move by the Malaysian government to industrialize the country's agrarian economy Malaysia is the world's second largest producer of palm oil after Indonesia Both countries account for about 85 per cent of total exports Incidentally smallholders produce about 40 per cent of the total output of palm oil in Malaysia The palm oil industry is mired in controversy Global campaigns originating in Europe and the US have branded the crop the biggest cause of deforestation with proposed bans to follow in December 2024 Certification has been proposed as the solution to address gaps in sustainability Sabah is used as an illustrative case study of an effective approach for statewide certification using both the Malaysian Sustainable Palm Oil MSPO and Roundtable for Sustainable Palm Oil RSPO schemes

Negotiating Globally Jeanne M. Brett, 2014-03-11 A framework for anticipating and managing cultural differences at the negotiating table In today's global environment negotiators who understand cultural differences and negotiation fundamentals have a decided advantage at the bargaining table This thoroughly revised and updated edition of Negotiating Globally explains how culture affects negotiators' assumptions about when and how to negotiate their interests and priorities and their strategies It explains how confrontation motivation influence and information strategies shift due to culture It provides strategic advice for negotiators whose deals disputes and decisions cross cultural boundaries and shows how to anticipate cultural differences and then manage them when they appear at the negotiating table It challenges negotiators to expand their repertoire of strategies so that they are prepared to negotiate deals resolve disputes and make decisions regardless of the culture in which they find themselves Includes a review of the various contexts and building blocks of negotiation strategy Explains how and why negotiation may be practiced differently in different cultures and how to modify strategy when confronted with different cultural approaches Explores the three primary cultural prototypes negotiators should understand Negotiating Globally is ideal for those relatively new to negotiation particularly in the global arena and offers an overview of the various contexts and tactics of negotiation strategy Written by an award winning negotiation expert this book provides an ideal framework for any and all global negotiations

Time and Environmental Law Benjamin J. Richardson, 2017-08-03 Disciplined by industrial clock time modern life distances people from nature s biorhythms such as its ecological evolutionary and climatic processes The law is complicit in numerous ways It compresses time through fast track legislation and accelerated resource exploitation It suffers from temporal inertia such as grandfathering existing activities that limits the law s responsiveness to changing circumstances Insouciance about past ecological damage and neglect of its restoration are equally serious temporal flaws we cannot live sustainably while Earth remains degraded and unrepaired Applying international and interdisciplinary perspectives on these issues Time and Environmental Law explores how to align law with the ecological timescape and enable humankind to tell nature s time Lending insight into environmental behaviour and impacts this book pioneers a new understanding of environmental law for all societies and makes recommendations for its reform Minding nature not the clock requires regenerating Earth adapting to its changes and living more slowly
