Jewish Community of Solano County Rachel Raskin-Zrihen,Rachel Rae Moncharsh-Lessem,Shoshana

Deutscher-Nurik,2014-10-27 This book contains images and stories of some of the Jews who have impacted Solano County It is not a record of every Jew to pass this way some of whom may have come intending to shed their Jewish identity by changing their names or converting Wonderful stories emerged about extraordinary people who made their marks here with few suspecting their Jewish roots yet they were traceable often because in death they chose to reclaim their heritage Others came to live as Jews and built an enduring community The story within these pages travels from the Old World to the edge of Gold Country where there lives a tenacious though often invisible Jewish community Cultural Diversity and the U.S.

Chanes,Mark Silk,2023-04-19 This book explores the state of the American Jewish world in the early 21st century after decades of accelerating change that has transformed it and all other religious groups in the United States It reveals a community in an unparalleled state of flux grappling with a society in which religious identity is more and more considered an individual choice rather than an inheritance and where fewer adults feel impelled to identify with any religious tradition at all In chapters written by leading experts the book examines the community s evolving demographics the direction of the principal denominational movements contemporary religious trends interactions with other American religious communities and engagements in the country s secular politics This text uniquely covers all these aspects of Judaism in America making it appealing to students and researchers in such fields as the sociology of religion Judaism and American history Judaism in a Digital Age Danny Schiff,2023-01-09 What is the next chapter in Judaism s story the next step in its journey The dramatic changes of recent decades invite us to explore what role Judaism is to play in this new era As the digital future becomes the present Danny Schiff makes the case that the period known as modernity has come to an end Noting the declining strength of Conservative and Reform Judaism the largest US Jewish movements of modernity he argues for new iterations of Judaism to arise in response to the myriad of weighty questions that now confront us about what it means to be human Here is an account of the digital age through a Jewish lens in which Schiff examines Jewish teachings and traditions exploring what moral insight they might have to offer in this period of great flux He marshals the thought of well known futurists such as Ray Kurzweil and Yuval Noah Harari to forecast the exponentially larger shifts in the human condition that lie ahead and proposes that a countercultural Judaism could have renewed relevance in addressing some of the pressing issues that confront humanity in the twenty first century Educational Oases in the Desert Jonathan Sciarcon,2017-06-21 During the late nineteenth and early twentieth centuries the Alliance Isra lite Universelle AIU a Paris based Jewish organization founded dozens of primary schools throughout the Middle East Many were the first formal educational institutions for local Jewish children In addition to providing secular education the schools attempted to change local customs and regenerate or uplift communities Educational Oases in the Desert explores the largely forgotten history of the AIU s schools for girls in Ottoman Iraq Drawing on extensive archival research Jonathan Sciarcon argues that teachers viewed female education through a gendered lens linked to their understanding of an ideal modern society As the primary educators of children women were seen as society s key agents of socialization The AIU thus concluded that its boys schools would never succeed in creating polished westernized men so long as women remained uneducated leading to the creation of schools for girls Sciarcon shows how headmistresses acted not just as educators but also as models of modernity trying to impart new moral and aesthetic norms onto students Gender and Religious Leadership Hartmut Bomhoff,Denise L.
