Sivakumar, 2023-12-05 This book is exploring molecular insight of plant disease resistance enhancing plant immunity as well as the latest omics or approaches in plant disease management In the recent past microbial strains or products frequently utilized to inhibit the growth of phytopathogen and disease management However it is well known that plants respond to numerous biotic and abiotic stresses by morphological biochemical and molecular mechanisms But still there is much more to study about their molecular aspect of interaction between host pathogens biocontrol agents that will be helpful in formulation and applications of microbial antagonistic for effective management of phytopathogens This book attempt to fill this gap in the literature This book is of interest to teachers researchers agronomist horticulturalist scientists capacity builders and policymakers Also the book serves as additional reading material for undergraduate and graduate students of agriculture microbiology environment science Sustainable Feed Ingredients and Additives for Aquaculture Farming Ndakalimwe Naftal Gabriel, Kenneth Prudence Abasubong, Victoria Ndinelago Erasmus, Manoj Tukaram Kamble, 2024-09-18 This book describes sustainable aquaculture ingredients and

additives uncovered in Africa and Asia It also discusses current aquaculture research practices on alternative protein carbohydrate lipid mineral vitamin and feed additives It further demonstrates how aquaculture practices could be a feasible and cost effective venture capable of producing products in an environmentally sustainable manner The aquaculture industry is suffering from scarcity of sustainable feedstuffs particularly protein and oil components which play an important role in the nutritional requirements of many aquaculture species The availability of components such as fish meal fish oil and other synthetic feed additives has rendered aquaculture operations unsustainable particularly in terms of cost Therefore the quest to replace such unsustainable components is developing in Africa and Asia This book helps aquaculture farmers researchers the aquafeed industry investors students lawmakers and other stakeholders in the aquaculture field to comprehend scientific based sustainable feed ingredients and additives in aquaculture from an African and Asian viewpoint Coffee ,2025-01-23 Coffee Volume 112 gives the latest updates on one of the premier global traded commodities With its annual income of approx USD 200 billion it supports the livelihoods of nearly 25 million smallholder farmers In this updated edition chapters cover The history and genetic diversity of arabica coffee The importance of wild coffee species in a scenario of climate changes Coffee plant architecture Water and heat constraints to coffee ecophysiology and production The impacts of irradiance on coffee growth and ecophysiology in a context of climate changes Omic technologies contribution to unveil coffee resilience responses to climate changes and much more Additional chapters delve into Agroforestry as an alternative management system to improve coffee crop sustainability and bean quality Could breeding of new arabica coffee varieties be a response to the climate change Selection development and management of robusta coffee genotypes under a climate change perspective Grafting coffee for productivity and health during a changing climate Coffee somatic embryogenesis advances limitations and perspectives for mass propagation and many other topics Provides up to date reviews on hot topics impacting coffee crop sustainability Updates on the response of coffee crops to environmental conditions and climate change Emphasizes procedures over the production chain with ultimate goals of achieving more eco friendly coffee production

Beyond Politics Njeri Rugene,2021-08-27 Kiraitu Murungi easily fits into the category of Philosopher King a leader who according to Plato combines intellect intelligence and wisdom in leadership An alumnus of the University of Nairobi and the prestigious Harvard University Kiraitu has applied these qualities to serve the society at constituency county and national levels In this candid interview with veteran journalist Njeri Rugene Kiraitu is blunt brutal frank and rational on politics and development issues The first of its kind in the country this lengthy interview is not only inspiring but also an insightful and igniting expos of realpolitik in Kenya Assessment of RUFORUM member universities in Kenya Mose, Lawrence,Gao, Lang,Beintema, Nienke M.,2018-11-29 Credible quantitative and qualitative information on existing capacities in agricultural higher education agencies in Africa are important for decisionmakers at national regional and international levels Decisionmakers require data and indicators for strategic planning policy formulation setting priorities and benchmarks measuring progress toward benchmarks and identifying capacity gaps Decisionmakers need a better understanding of the specifics of existing staffing and student capacities in the higher education sector as well as in the wider agricultural innovation systems in Africa south of the Sahara Access to such information will result in better policies addressing capacity issues in agricultural higher education research extension and other areas The existence of such information however remains extremely limited
