Trails in Academic and Administrative Leadership in Kenya Michieka, Ratemo Waya, 2017-05-03 Scholars especially those interested in understanding how leadership has inhibited academic freedom and hindered effectiveness of institutions of higher learning have for long been engaged by the very important manner in which governance and leadership of higher education institutions in Africa is constituted and managed. The fact that there has been a dearth of work based on the experiences of those who have served as university leaders has created a major gap. Questions remain on how leaders of higher education institutions are identified, how they are prepared, the personal predispositions that individuals bring to the exercise of such positions, and their personal experiences regarding what energizes or inhibits the performance of their work. Until recently, presidents in most African countries served as chancellors of public universities. Identification of those who served as university leaders was largely a political process. But much has changed with most countries establishing oversight bodies and the overall governance of higher education institutions divorced from the day to day political processes. Trails in Academic and Administrative Leadership in Kenya provides a personal account of the experiences in higher education leadership from an individual whose tenure in leadership straddled the two eras. In this book, Prof Michieka provides an account of how his early education prepared him for roles in academic and institutional leadership in Kenya. The author shares his experiences on the trails he had to navigate as an academic, a vice chancellor, and a chairperson of university council at a time when universities in Kenya were transiting from extreme government administrative control to a greater degree of operational autonomy. Readers will find in this work thought provoking insights on how leaders of higher education institutions in Kenya have had to balance between demands of the political system and the need to safeguard academic traditions in the everyday management of the institutions. Proceedings of 2005 JKUAT Scientific, Technological, and Industrialisation Conference, 2006 Higher Education, Policy, and the Global Competition Phenomenon V. Rust, L.

Portnoi, S. Bagley, 2010-03-29 This book inquires about the processes through which different higher education systems have determined national higher education policies related to competitiveness as well as the strategies they have adopted to enhance their global competitiveness. African Women and Intellectual Leadership Maurice Nyamanga Amutabi, Emily Achieng' Akuno, Humphrey J. Ojwang, Dannica Fleuss, 2024-02-29 This book highlights the pioneering roles of African women as leaders and role models in Kenya, providing examples taken from across education, health, business, and a range of other sectors. Drawing on authentic first-hand accounts and narratives from key women in leadership positions and those who have lived with them, the book presents the life stories of women leaders over the last fifty years, aiming to preserve their contributions for posterity and to inspire young people with moral, ethical, and progressive role models. The book uses African knowledge production strategies that look at the human being holistically in the prism of Ubuntu in order to define leadership in Africa from an African perspective one that celebrates the role of the mother figure and places women at the centre of African values and societal dynamics This book will be of interest to researchers and students of African studies gender studies and Kenyan education and socio political history The Kenya Education Directory ,2003 Climate Change Education for Sustainable Development Keengwe, Jared,Nyatuka, Benard O.,2023-08-25 Climate Change Education for Sustainable Development led by experienced editor Jared Keengwe is a must read for academic scholars concerned about the impact of climate change and want to foster sustainable development The book highlights the importance of climate change education in equipping individuals with the knowledge skills values and attitudes needed to confront the impact of climate change It also identifies the challenges in realizing the anticipated objectives including limited understanding of the weather change phenomenon less effective pedagogical approaches and weak partnerships among critical stakeholders The book covers various topics such as teaching principles pedagogical perspectives theoretical foundations and alignment professional orientation pedagogical strategies learner support contextual issues and reflective practice considerations It is intended for climate change analysts policy makers curriculum designers faculty educators and other stakeholders interested in averting the impact of climate change and fostering sustainable development With its comprehensive coverage and the editor s expertise Climate Change Education for Sustainable Development is the perfect resource for anyone seeking to deepen their understanding of climate change education and its role in sustainable development Bold Dream Gladys Chepkirui Ngetich,2021-01-13 What exactly does it take to bring out the best in you Pure luck or simply one s fate How far can one go through sheer grit hard work and consistency In The Bold Dream Transcending the Impossible a medical doctor and an aerospace engineer tell of how they scaled academic heights from under resourced rural primary schools deep in the heart of the Rift Valley in Kenya to the University of Oxford as Rhodes scholars Through narration of real life experiences this book explores the challenges they faced while growing up and schooling the push that their bold dreams gave them and how they ended up in one of the most prestigious academic institutions in the world Most importantly they share deep thought provoking views on the sacrifices women in their community make through the experiences of their mothers Dr Elisha Ngetich and Dr Gladys Ngetich explore some of the consistent themes in their serendipitous climb to the University of Oxford to pursue PhD An inspirational read this book is a must read for anyone who wants to persistently pursue their bold dreams

Transforming Tertiary Agricultural Education in Africa David Kraybill,John Lynam,Adipala Ekwamu,2021-11-24 Enormous changes are affecting African production agriculture urbanization and food consumption patterns requiring new approaches to training and knowledge generation and dissemination to achieve food security Many agricultural universities and other tertiary agricultural education TAE organizations have been slow to respond hindered by inadequate staffing and facilities and growing competition for funds However some African agricultural universities are transforming themselves and are achieving remarkable success This book documents successful approaches to remaking TAE in Africa to inspire leaders

both formal and informal of other TAE organizations It emphasises adaptive strategies and processes creating an internal culture driven by stakeholder needs and where organizational transformation improves the quality and relevance of teaching research and outreach The chapters cover the role of TAE in agricultural transformation trends in TAE in Africa solutions to the rigour versus relevance dilemma curriculum design informed by actual and emerging labour market conditions innovation and entrepreneurship TAE quality assurance and networking among TAE institutions Finance ,2006
