Stevenson, 2017-03-10 Does God sovereignly elect some individuals for salvation while passing others by Do human beings possess free will to embrace or reject the gospel Did Christ die equally for all people or only for some These guestions have long been debated in the history of the Christian church Answers typically fall into one of two main categories popularly known as Calvinism and Arminianism The focus of this book is to establish how one nineteenth century evangelical group the Brethren responded to these and other related guestions The Brethren produced a number of colorful leaders whose influence was felt throughout the evangelical world Although many critics have assumed the movement's theology was Arminian this book argues that the Brethren with few exceptions advocated Calvinistic positions Yet there were some twists along the way The movement's radical biblicism passionate evangelism and strong aversion to systematic theology and creeds meant they refused to label themselves as Calvinists even though they affirmed Calvinism s soteriological principles the so called doctrines of grace The Philosophy of Integrating Medical Anthropology & Clinical Psychology: Mental Health & Soul Health Dr. Sabelo Sam Gasela Mhlanga, 2023-04-25 The book explores the philosophy of integrating Medical Anthropology and Clinical Psychology to understand mental and soul health as a quest for solutions to human health diseases treatment and prevention The book also discusses mental and soul health and examines the various diseases and their impact on human health The substance abuse in adolescents is explored in depth The book traces human medicine through history using empirical methods archeology biomedical sociomedical and epidemiology theory and methods This includes the scientific study of humanity human behavior human biology culture linguistics and societies in the past present and future Assurance of Adoption Chun Tse,2020-09-21 This book presents a new paradigm for assurance of salvation It argues that an adoption centric

Lynch, 2021-05-27 Recently there has been a revival of interest in the views held by Reformed theologians within the parameters of confessional orthodoxy For example the doctrine known as hypothetical universalism the idea that although Christ died in some sense for every person his death was intended to bring about the salvation only for those who were predestined for salvation Michael Lynch focuses on the hypothetical universalism of the English theologian and bishop John Davenant 1572 1641 arguing that it has consistently been misinterpreted and misrepresented as a via media between Arminian and Reformed theology A close examination of Davenent's De Morte Christi is the central core of the study Lynch offers a detailed exposition of Davenant's doctrine of universal redemption in dialogue with his understanding of closely related doctrines such as God's will predestination providence and covenant theology He defends the thesis that Davenant's version of hypothetical universalism represents a significant strand of the Augustinian tradition including the early modern Reformed tradition The book examines the patristic and medieval periods as they provided the background for the Lutheran Remonstrant and Reformed reactions to the so called Lombardian formula Christ died sufficiently for all effectually for the elect It traces how Davenant and his fellow British delegates at the Synod of Dordt shaped the Canons of Dordt in such a way as to allow for their English hypothetical universalism Park, 2012-11-17 The history of the United States is the history of people who migrated to America from all parts of the world As a result American society is composed of many unique cultures and races Unfortunately the uniqueness of these cultures is one of the underlying causes of tension and conflict in America resulting in racism religious intolerance and class warfare In spite of this the multi racial nature of American society is an integral part of Americas strength as a nation Thousands of immigrants from unique cultures who speak totally different languages came to find a better life in America But they were never accepted by the dominate white Christians The immigrants had to fight for the right to be in America Racism race riots and genocide are integral parts of the lives of immigrants The racial complexion of America is changing in the twenty first century In a short time the non white population will be the majority Social economic and political changes are already taking place Unfortunately the dominate power holders and white middle classes have not adjusted to these changes The unique system of government and economics developed over the years has reached a point that many believe will end the American Empire There is a certain bias in this presentation and criticism is aimed at the extreme beliefs and actions of a large segment of Americans particularly white Christians They have been the dominant political social and economic forces in the country Any assessment of the American system becomes a criticism of that segment of Americans Their beliefs and actions represent the Dark Side of America Union with Christ Sung Rual Choi, 2023-11-13 Understanding union with Christ as a frame of thought as a motif or theme is important for accessing Calvin's theology While the union with Christ doctrine arises when Calvin explains the doctrine itself directly especially in light of soteriology the strong presence of this motif union with Christ union with the Triune God indicates its pervasiveness when other doctrines or theological themes are explained as well This book suggests that we approach the notion of union of Christ as a theological frame of thought that touches on most of the doctrines and theological themes of Calvin's theology This book deals with union with Christ as a motif or theme rather The Power of the Church Michael R. Wagenman, 2020-11-20 It is fascinating that in all the media than as a doctrine reports and discussions of the church's abuse of power in the early years of the twenty first century few if any seemed to notice that the accusation of the church's misuse of power presupposed a shared understanding of the positive use of power within the church that had been violated Rather than an interest in the sociological aspect of this question this book examines the more ontological and normative aspects of it That is it investigates and discerns the foundational theological framework of culture and society and the location and purpose of the church within them As a cultural force and societal institution what does the church constructively bring to the human community Encyclopedia of Martin Luther and the Reformation Mark A. Lamport, 2017-08-31 The Encyclopedia of Martin Luther and the Reformation is a comprehensive global study of the life and work of Martin Luther and the movements that followed him in history and through today Organized by a stellar advisory board of Luther and Reformation scholars the encyclopedia features nearly five hundred entries that examine Luther's life and impact worldwide The two volume set provides overviews of basics such as the 95 Theses as well as more complex topics such as reformational distinctions Entries explore Luther's contributions to theology sacraments his influence on the church and contemporaries his character and more The work also discusses Luther s controversies and topics such as gender sexuality and race Publishing at the five hundredth anniversary of the Reformation this is an essential reference work for understanding the Reformation and its legacy today Calvin Joel R. Beeke, Garry J. Williams, 2010-06-30 This volume grows out of a conference at The John Owen Centre for Theological Study in London to celebrate the 500th anniversary of the Reformer's birth Topics covered include Calvin's life and reforming work his Institutes of the Christian Religion aspects of his theology and his commitment to revolutionary living and powerful preaching The contributors are Joel Beeke Sinclair Ferguson Ian Hamilton Anthony Lane Ray Pennings and Paul Wells Table of Contents Introduction Gary J Williams PART 1 LIFE AND WORK 1 Calvin the Man A Heart Aflame Sinclair B Ferguson 2 Calvin the Reformer Ian Hamilton 3 Calvin s Way of Doing Theology Exploring the Institutes Anthony N S Lane PART 2 DOCTRINE AND EXPERIENCE 4 Calvin and Union with Christ The Heart of Christian Doctrine Paul Wells 5 Calvin and Christian Experience The Holy Spirit in the Life of the Christian Sinclair B Ferguson PART 3 CHRISTIAN LIVING AND MINISTRY 6 Calvin the Revolutionary Christian Living in a Fallen World Joel R Beeke and Ray Pennings 7 Calvin and Preaching The Power of the Word Joel R Beeke Reformed Preaching Joel Beeke, 2018-10-15 Preaching today all too often tragically misses the point We ve all heard sermons that sound more like a lecture filling the head but not the heart And we ve all heard sermons tailored to produce an emotional experience filling the heart but not the head But biblical preaching both informs minds and engages hearts giving it the power to transform lives By the Spirit's grace biblical preaching brings truth home from the heart of the preacher to the heart of the hearer Joel Beeke a pastor and professor of preaching with over four decades of experience explores the fundamental principles of Reformed experiential preaching examining sermons by preachers from the past and bridging the historical gap by showing pastors what the preaching of God's life transforming truth looks like today
