P. Vaswani,2019-03-07 Do you realize that you make 600 to 3 000 choices in a day From the moment you wake up to the time you go back to sleep you are always making a choice So you have the choice to choose well for yourself Make the Right Choice is one of Reverend Dada J P Vaswani's many practical guides to a happy and contented life. It is based on one of his inspiring talks he delivered on his ninety ninth birthday at the Sadhu Vaswani Mission Centre which makes this book special. It is also one of the last few books that Dada Vaswani had written before his sudden demise on 12 July 2018. A modern practical and insightful read. Make the Right Choice is the author's personal guide to managing our choices in life. Giving seven positive affirmations to follow. Dada Vaswani inspires us to be intuitive, courageous, kind, and forgiving. Once we start showing strong affection towards ourselves, we are then no longer clouded with wrong choices. The path becomes clearer. You can choose to be what you wish to be.

Anxiety's Inner Voice Clo Nickelpiegler, 2011-06-01 Description: Anxiety's Inner Voice describes how each reader can like the author make the journey from panic to emotional self acceptance. A book for women written by a woman who has gone through the experience, this life changing book offers more than self help. It focuses on a gentle self acceptance. While conventional treatments for anxiety rely on changing the way you think, this book's core message is one of emotional healing. Instead of suppressing or pushing away their feelings, the reader will be shown that emotions are something that they can embrace and learn from in order to achieve lasting peace. More importantly, women will learn how to use their anxiety as an emotional compass to not only heal their particular anxieties but to thrive in all areas of their lives.

About the Author: Clo Nickel is currently pursuing a degree in Psychology and works part time as a Microbiology Lab Analyst. She enjoys travelling and has just returned home from a trip to Thailand. She lives in beautiful British Columbia, Canada, with her husband, soul mate, and their two wonderful kids. Clo also enjoys the creative arts and has started a yoga inspired jewelry line called Inner Voice Beads. She hopes both her book and her jewelry will help women remember the importance of listening to their own inner voice.

Analyses Concerning Passive and Active Synthesis Edmund Husserl, 2012-12-06. Coming from what is arguably the most productive period of Husserl's life, this volume offers the reader a first translation into English of Husserl's renowned lectures on passive synthesis given between 1920 and 1926. These lectures are the first extensive application of Husserl's newly developed genetic phenomenology to perceptual experience and to the way in which it is connected to judgments and cognition. They include an historical reflection on the crisis of contemporary thought and human spirit, provide an archaeology of experience by questioning back into sedimented layers of meaning, and sketch the genealogy of judgment in active synthesis. Drawing upon everyday events and personal experiences, the Analyses are marked by a patient attention to the subtle emergence of sense in our lives. By advancing a phenomenology of association that treats such phenomena as bodily kinaesthesia, temporal genesis, habit, affection, attention, motivation, and the unconscious, Husserl explores the cognitive dimensions of the body in its affectively significant surroundings. An elaboration of these diverse modes of evidence and their modalizations, transcendental aesthetic allows Husserl to trace the origin of truth up to judicative achievements, transcendental logic. Joined by several of Husserl's essays on static and genetic method, the Analyses afford a richness of description unequalled by the majority of Husserl's works available to English.

readers Students of phenomenology and of Husserl's thought will find this an indispensable work Transforming the Hermeneutic Context Gayle L. Ormiston, Alan D. Schrift, 1990-01-01 This book presents contemporary analyses of interpretation by some of the most prominent figures in contemporary philosophy and literary criticism These essays question and transform traditional statements on the aims methods and techniques of interpretation The essays demonstrate how contemporary discussions of interpretation are necessarily sent back to the hermeneutic tradition Emphasizing the importance of Friedrich Nietzsche's influence on the contemporary debates concerning current interpretive practices this volume traces the differences in interpretive perspectives generated in the writings of Michel Foucault Eric Blondel Julia Kristeva Jacques Derrida Manfred Frank Werner Hamacher and Jean Luc Nancy The essays by Foucault Blondel Frank Hamacher and Nancy appear here for the first time in English

Understanding Phenomenological Reflective Practice in the Social and Ecological Fields Peter Westoby, 2022-07-21 This book introduces social practitioners community development workers social workers organisational change facilitators social ecological cultural and political activists to a phenomenological tradition of reflective practice Critiquing reductionist linear and ossified thinking in the social and ecological fields the book offers an exciting new alternative that is honouring of the uncertainty of all living and therefore emergent social processes Linking phenomenology and Goethe's delicate empiricism the book challenges practitioners to observe and work with living processes As such the book charts two stories two inquiries One personal and the other social The first is the personal phenomenological inquiry into the author's own practice a search to make sense of the nuanced and subtle practice that he brings to the social world The second journey is the inquiry into how this social practice shaped as it is by a confluence of three rivers dialogue and community soul and depth psychology Goethe and delicate activism along with other thinkers on observation and aliveness can be understood in the context of a wider phenomenological reflective practice This second journey draws on years of experience and research in Brazil South Africa Australia New Zealand and parts of Europe Presenting a philosophical personal and practical analysis it offers a new approach to observation and action while working with aliveness and complexity within the social and ecological fields It will be of interest to all scholars and students of social work and community development and particularly courses on social complexity
