Long Nights Short Years:

Harbor Me Jacqueline Woodson, 2020-04-21 A NEW YORK TIMES BESTSELLER Jacqueline Woodson's first middle grade novel since National Book Award winner Brown Girl Dreaming celebrates the healing that can occur when a group of students share their stories. It all starts when six kids have to meet for a weekly chat by themselves with no adults to listen in. There in the room they soon dub the ARTT Room short for A Room to Talk they discover it's safe to talk about what's bothering them everything from Esteban's father's deportation and Haley's father's incarceration to Amari's fears of racial profiling and Ashton's adjustment to his changing family fortunes. When the six are together they can express the feelings and fears they have to hide from the rest of the world. And together they can grow braver and more ready for the rest of their lives.

Rain Sandy Robertson, 2017-06-23 The sounds of sirens mingled with stranger's worried voices as she struggled to make sense of the scene around her. A shoe, her shoe, lay in the intersection and raindrops clung to her fingertips before falling away. She felt a strong pair of arms embracing her, holding her as the sirens grew closer. She couldn't see his face but she knew he was the one she had been running from when she veered in front of that car. Who was he really? The mysterious benefactor who had been appearing and then disappointingly disappearing through most of her life? Who was he? She wanted to turn to look him in the eye but she couldn't and the rain fell softly now. Everything seemed to be slowing down. The sirens faded and she reluctantly closed her eyes, not sure whether she'd ever open them again. Rain is a fictional story of reflection in which memories return to a coma patient as she remembers childhood challenges and setbacks, the joys of starting a family of her own, and the heart-breaking twists and turns of a too short life. It is the story of one girl's journey through an overburdened system that largely fails her, of her resilience and refusal to give up, and her discovery that family really is forever.

Parent Like It Matters Janice Johnson Dias, PhD, 2022-02-08 An accessible blueprint to embolden our daughters to be critical thinkers, fearless doers, and joyful change agents for our future from the proud mother of teen activist Marley Dias, founder of 1000BLACKGIRLBOOKS. A powerful resource for caregivers trying to raise courageous girls. It's my go-to and my how-to. Kwame Alexander, New York Times bestselling author of Light for the World to See. Renowned sociologist Dr. Janice Johnson Dias has devoted her life to nurturing and training girls to become change makers, whether through her investment in her daughter Marley's humanitarian projects or through her work with the GrassROOTS Community Foundation's SuperCamp. In these unprecedented times, her work has never been more urgent as parents find themselves asking, How do we teach our children to change the world? Dr. Johnson Dias knows that self-realized girls are created through intentional parenting. And so she asks parents to make deliberate choices from babyhood through adolescence that will give their girls the resources and foundation to take hold of their own futures and to create sustainable social change Unlike other parenting experts Dr Johnson Dias doesn't urge parents to focus solely on their children Instead she tasks them with a personal challenge to find their own joy Just as Dr Johnson Dias brings her own jubilant passion to parenting mentoring and teaching she inspires caregivers to do the same Using cutting edge research and Dr Johnson Dias's own experiences Parent Like It Matters offers information and strategies for making discussions of racism and sexism a daily practice identifying heroes and mentors educating yourselves together and uncovering your girl's passions and what issues drive her the most Parenting is enormous work it can be as overwhelming as it is fulfilling Within the pages of Parent Like It Matters parents will find the invaluable tools they need to raise resilient optimistic girls who determine for themselves what their world will look like
