

Do's and Don'ts.....

Don'ts

Nesting Tables - Do's

Use the table for display, to create a 'story', 'theme' and category of merchandise rather than stacking

If props are being used they should add to the display and help in communicating the story/ look/ theme.

Ensure colour blocking or create a colour story.

The stacks should be neat and tidy in communicating a story.

The table is placed right next to the toys basket and this gives a chaotic look to the section. This should not be done.

The garments of the same genre should be kept together.

Merchandise Presentation Manual:

Instructor's Manual United States. Small Business Administration, 1967 Field Visual Merchandising Strategy Paul J. Russell, 2015-01-03 The retail sales floor has become a battlefield each brand is fighting for the same customer and wants to ensure their merchandise is on the sales floor sized folded hung and presented properly Field Visual Merchandising Strategy is a comprehensive guide to developing and executing a national field merchandising strategy covering key areas such as developing a strategy how to go about selecting the right merchandising service organization team training merchandising standards planograms and launching the strategy Ideal for retail marketers visual merchandisers merchandising managers and brand managers Field Visual Merchandising Strategy uses examples and case studies from a range of shops from fashion emporia to small outlets to provide real world insight on how strategic visual merchandising works Gas Appliance Merchandising , 1937 Distributive Education Instructional Materials Ohio State University. Center for Vocational and Technical Education, 1972 Display Manual National Retail Dry Goods Association (U.S.). Visual Merchandising Group, 1955 Resources in Education , 1992-06 Visual Merchandising Louisa Iarocci, 2017-07-05 Situated at the crossroads of visual culture and consumerism this essay collection examines visual merchandising as both a business and an art It seeks to challenge that scholarly ambivalence that often celebrates the spectacle but denies the agenda of consumerism The volume considers strategies in the imaging of selling from the mid nineteenth century to the present in terms of the visual interaction that occurs between the commodity and the consumer and between body and space Under the categories of Promotion Product and Place contributors to the volume examine the strategies in the presentation of retail goods and environments that range from print advertising to product design to store display and architecture Visual Merchandising The Image of Selling is located directly at the nexus of business practice and cultural myth where the spectator never loses sight of their status as buyer and the object of desire is always still a commodity Distributive Education from AIM, 1967-1971 United States.
