Ministry Of Public Service Administrative Reforms Cameroon:

Management of Public Service Reform Joan Corkery, 1998 The reform of public administration to adapt to the pressures and new requirements of an ever changing world has become a major global phenomenon This study has been produced by the International Institute of Administrative Sciences and the European Centre for Development Policy Management

Renewing the Promise Julius Fondong ,2022-08-08 In this very riveting and well researched essay Julius Fondong ruminates on the continued relevance of the promises and principles that underpinned the creation of the post colonial Cameroon nation state sixty years after unification in 1961 Renewing the Promise A Treatise on the Refoundation of the Cameroon Nation chronicles Cameroon s experiment in statehood an experiment which according to the author sprung out of a desire and a promise to forge a new nation through the fusion of two territories with contrasting historical experiences and colonial legacies Writing from the vantage position of a policy analyst a governance expert and a conflict management practitioner Fondong contends that a combination of policy inconsistencies imperial arrogance institution capture leadership deficiencies and the brazen travesties of the nation s foundational principles and promises has led to violent internal dissent decreased state capacity for public service delivery and a development gridlock So what can be done to re align the nation to its founding promises and save it from possible disintegration Fondong proposes an overarching governance based praxis for the re engineering of the Cameroon nation from the bottom up His proposed remedy is predicated on the principles of decentralized governance the redistribution of power in a manner that addresses the right to self determination of Anglophone Cameroonians enhanced public service delivery and a strategic shift from a transactional to a transformational leadership paradigm Renewing the Promise is a thought provoking and captivating political essay written with exhilarating passion and prototypical clarity It can serve as a blueprint for a much needed reform of Cameroon s governance architecture

Unlocking The Human Potential For Public Sector Performance World Public Sector Report 2005 United Nations, 2006 The conditions of globalization including economic integration fiscal discipline introduction of information communications technologies and democratic governance have increasingly forced states to redefine their role in public management and to reform the public administration system However there is growing realization among decision makers that policy and institutional reform per se will not be sufficient to revitalize the public sector Major strengthening of the knowledge skills values attitudes and leadership abilities of human capital is also needed to transform the public sector particularly in developing countries and countries with economies in transition This year s report is expected to contribute to global and national debates on this topic Publisher s description Decentralisation in Commonwealth Africa Janet Kathyola, Oluwatoyin Job, 2011 Through detailed case studies of decentralisation policies in five sub Saharan African countries Botswana Cameroon Ghana Mozambique and Tanzania this book examines the challenges presented lessons learned and recommends ways to improve policy implementation Growing Old in Cameroon Charles Che

Fonchingong,2013-12-11 For the governments of many developing African nations providing income security for the older population is difficult particularly in Cameroon This book uncovers the complex problem of pension deficits and difficulties providing welfare and other forms of social assistance A vast majority of older people in Cameroon remain unassisted and battling to survive with increasingly fragmented family and community oriented forms of support As the older population increases fundamental concerns remain Is care provided only by family members sustainable How does gender factor into this situation and who bears the brunt of these problems Borrowing from social capital theory this book discusses how older people struggle to find new forms of social protection This book articulates the view that older people display remarkable courage resilience and coping strategies which make them not a burden to society but rather key players in the development process It proposes achievable policy options that can make a difference in the lives of Cameroon s older citizens

Sustaining Reforms for Inclusive Growth in Cameroon Florence Charlier,Charles N'cho-Oguie,2009 This comprehensive review of Cameroon s development policies since the 1970s including public finance privatization trade infrastructure and governance finds that Cameroon s malaise is due less to a lack of resources than to an inability to sustain reforms and to implement growth enhancing policies While the government s strategies have been sound this volume argues that an administrative inertia has set in This study makes a number of key recommendations to overcome this inertia enhance cohesion and consistency in government actions strengthen capacity to effectively execute programs and hence increase development outcomes for Cameroon
