Mission Et Colonisation Madagascar:

The Norwegian Mission's Literacy Work in Colonial and Independent Madagascar Ellen Veia Rosnes, 2018-12-07
Offering an original historical perspective on literacy work in Africa this book examines the role of the Norwegian Lutheran mission in Madagascar and sheds light on the motivations that drove colonizing powers literacy work Focusing on both colonial and independent Madagascar Rosnes examines how literacy practices were facilitated through mission schools and the impact on the reading and writing skills to Malagasy children and youth Analysing how literacy work influenced identity formation and power relations in the Malagasy society the author offers new insights into the field of language and education in Africa

The Encyclopædia of Missions Edwin Munsell Bliss, 1891 Memoirs de M. le préfet de la Seine et de M. le préfet de police, et procès-verbaux des délibérations Seine (Department). Conseil général, 1896 Building God's Kingdom Karina Hestad Skeie, 2012-11-13 The author analyzes Malagasy influence on the 19th century Norwegian mission in highland Madagascar She reveals the complex dynamics of mission encounters

The Colonial Dream Damien Tricoire, 2023-03-06 European expansion began in the early modern period but in the 18th century Europeans were still far from establishing their rule in Africa or Asia Many attempts at expansion failed miserably Nevertheless the belief in European supremacy and civilizing charisma was consolidated This study examines the reasons for these unrealistic plans and shows how a gap developed between imperial aspirations and the reality of intercultural encounters Using the history of French attempts at expansion in Madagascar as an example it analyses the unfolding of colonial fantasy the production of bureaucratic knowledge and the role of the Enlightenment in the development of colonialism

Report of the Centenary Conference on the Protestant Missions of the World Johnston, 1888 Report of the Centenary Conference on the Protestant Missions of the World James Johnston (F.S.S.), 1889 Communication and Conversion in Northern Cameroon Tomas Sundnes Drønen, 2009-08-31 Was modern Christian mission to Africa primarily a colonial project and a civilizing mission or was it a spiritual revival spreading to new areas This book tells the tale of the Dii people in northern Cameroon and describes their encounter with Norwegian missionaries Through archival studies and through fieldwork among the Dii an intriguing scenario is presented Whereas the missionaries describe their mission as one of spiritual liberation and the Dii highlight the social liberation they received through literacy and political independence the author shows how both spiritual and social changes were results of captivation miscommunication and constant negotiations between the two parties

The Story of the South Seas George Cousins, 1894 Protestant Missions and Local Encounters in the Nineteenth and Twentieth Centuries Hilde Nielssen, Inger Marie Okkenhaug, Karina Hestad-Skeie, 2011-07-27 This book makes visible an important but largely neglected aspect of Christian missions its transnational character An interdisciplinary group of scholars present case studies on missions and individual missionaries unified by a common vision of expanding a Christian Empire to the ends of the world Examples range from Madagascar South Africa Palestine Turkey Tibet Germany Norway the Netherlands Canada and Britain Engaging in activities from education health care and development aid to religion ethnography and collection of material culture Christian missionaries considered themselves as global actors working for the benefit of common humanity Yet the missionaries came from and operated within a variety of nation states Thus this volume demonstrates how processes on a national level are closely linked to larger transnational processes
