

One tool that is causing internet marketing popularity is pay-per-click advertising. This is a technique used in search engine marketing and Facebook that requires one to pay a fee every time someone clicks an ad. Usually this placement is done through a bidding process. If you are a top bidder for your keywords/phrases, you are sure to be on the number one spot on all search engines (like Google, Yahoo, etc) . Just be sure your ad copy is good to get the most number of clicks you need for your business.
