Fighting to Become Americans Riv-Ellen Prell, 2000-03-03 Her exaggerated coiffure with its imitation curls and soaped curves that stick out at the side of the head like fantastic gargoyles is an offense to the eye Her plated gold jewelry with paste stones reveals its cheapness by its very extravagance This description of a ghetto girl was printed in the American Jewish News in 1918 but with slight variation it might easily be mistaken for a description of our current pernicious and pejorative stereotype of Jewish womanhood the JAP What are the origins of these stereotypes And even more important why would an American ethnic group use racist terms to describe itself Riv Ellen Prell asks these compelling questions as she observes how deeply anti Semitic stereotypes infuse Jewish men s and women s views of one another in this history of Jewish acculturation in the twentieth century      Wartime Memoirs of Drunken Debauchery Doctor Brdman,2017-10-12 The online literary magazine www brdman com presents Wartime Memoirs of Drunken Debauchery Dr Brdman s first collection of memoirs Brdman s raw confessional writing style loaded with sarcasm and wit fluctuates between poetic verse and narrative prose while alternating tone and form in order to promulgate his constant state of cognitive dissidence Unapologetically Matthew Joseph pontificates his lifelong struggles with faith love sexual promiscuity childhood abandonment gynecomastia death and perpetual alcohol abuse which hindered his development as a leader of Marines and as a man Developing severe hypogonadism and losing the ability to produce testosterone and sperm coerced Matthew Joseph to reevaluate his life of mass destruction Not every chapter will make you laugh not every chapter will make you cry In the end Wartime Memoirs of Drunken Debauchery WMDs leaves readers in shock and awe      The Black Girl Next Door Jennifer Baszile,2009-01-13 A powerful beautifully written memoir about coming of age as a black girl in an exclusive white suburb in integrated post Civil Rights California in the 1970s and 1980s At six years of age after winning a foot race against a white classmate Jennifer Baszile was humiliated to hear her classmate explain that black people have something in their feet to make them run faster than white people When she asked her teacher about it it was confirmed as true The next morning Jennifer s father accompanied her to school careful to assert himself as an informed and concerned parent and not simply a big black dangerous man in a first grade classroom This was the first of many skirmishes in Jennifer s childhood long struggle to define herself as the black girl next door while living out her parents dreams Success for her was being the smartest and achieving the most with the consequence that much of her girlhood did not seem like her own but more like the family project But integration took a toll on everyone in the family when strain in her parents marriage emerged in her teenage years and the struggle to be the perfect black family became an unbearable burden A deeply personal view of a significant period of American social history The Black Girl Next Door deftly balances childhood experiences with adult observations creating an illuminating and poignant look at a unique time in our country s history
