Gift The Art Of David Flores:

Gift David Flores,2015-02-10 Flores interest in making art accessible started in design and has manifested in toys clothing and prints A progression that started in skateboarding and now seems to bleed into anything that can hold a graphic Flores heroic portraits are a celebration of culture His audience is attracted to the work because they can touch and engage it From taking a photo and posting it online to purchasing a product designed by Flores like sunglasses or a skateboard the approachability is key The graphic nature of Flores work lends itself to being reproduced through photography and its potential to go viral because of the striking aesthetic The culmination of subcultures including toy culture skateboarding mural making and street wear David Flores s work represents a distinct part of culture and the art world that didn t exist a few decades ago Introduction Configuring the New Lima Art Scene Giuliana Borea,2021-01-24 This book examines the contemporary art world in Latin America from an anthropological perspective and recognises the recent reconfiguration of Lima s art scene Giuliana Borea traces the practices of artists curators collectors art dealers and museums identifying three key moments in this reconfiguration of contemporary art in Lima artistic explorations and new curatorial narratives museum reinforcement and the strengthening of Latin American art networks and of the rise of the art market In so doing Borea highlights the different actors that come into play in activating and de activating directions and imaginations The book exposes the practices of the local the global indigeneity and politics in the arts and reveals that the strengthening of the Lima art scene has fostered the expansion of dominant art views and formats mobilised by transnational elite actors Featuring analytical chapters interspersed with personal stories Borea s book presents an in depth analysis of a specific art scene to open up a new way of understanding contemporary art practices in relation to globalisation neoliberalism and the city

Precarious Constructions Vanessa A. Rosa,2023-11-06 This sharply argued book posits that urban revitalization making better city living spaces from those that have been neglected due to racist city planning and divestment is a code word for fraught state managed gentrification Vanessa A Rosa examines the revitalization of two Toronto public housing projects Regent Park and Lawrence Heights and uses this evidence to analyze the challenges of racial inequality and segregation at the heart of housing systems in many cities worldwide Instead of promoting safety and belonging Rosa argues that revitalization too often creates more intense exclusion But the story of these housing projects also reveals how residents pushed back on the ideals of revitalization touted by city officials and policymakers Rosa explores urban revitalization as a window to investigate broader questions about social regulation and the ways that racism classism and dynamics of inclusion exclusion are foundational to liberal democratic societies particularly as scholars continue to debate the politics of gentrification at the local level and the politics of integration and multiculturalism at the national level Vanishing

Rivera Andrea Kettenmann,Diego Rivera,2000 It was as a revolutionary and troublemaker that Picasso Dal and Andre Breton described the husband of Frida Kahlo Diego Rivera but he was also responsible for creating a public art that was both highly advanced and profoundly accessible This study presents the work of this extraordinary artist

Collision David Cecchetto,Nancy Cuthbert,Julie

Lassonde, 2008-12-18 With very few exceptions interdisciplinary art and interarts practices examined as such including the perspective of artist researchers and not subsumed under a singular category of performance or visual art have until now been largely ignored While it would be simplistic to think that this collection somehow rectifies the piecemeal status of this discourse our wager is that this collection works towards presenting an understanding of this status as in a certain sense constitutive of the field Beginning with an introduction to the very multiplicities that compose and complicate interdisciplinary practices then moving into questions of body technology location movement space practice performativity aesthetics this collection covers an enormous amount while still retaining an overarching sense of unity in the context of the subject as a whole Each of these sections negotiates a series of interrelated collisions in order to address a range of theoretical positions as well as a variety of international and cultural perspectives In addition to addressing the notion of interdisciplinarity and the challenges of specific interarts practices this publication seeks to question how we might understand interarts practice in a way that does not exclude perspectives such as spirituality law political activism and community development to name only a few The inclusion of these disparate practices within this publication itself a site of collision of the poetic the conversational and the theoretical is thus not presented as an attempt to unify or normalize them but rather as a productive charting of their radical explosion a collision that is always a colliding
