encounter God in and through our love Building upon the discoveries of recent scholarship Andrew Staron reads Augustine's De Trinitate not as presenting the Trinity as a concept to be grasped but rather as a rational study of the limits of theological language and the possibility of coming to know the Trinity because of those limits Human dependence on God's initiative indicates that the Trinitarian God of love is knowable only through attention to how God's self-revelation transforms and saves us Therefore to see God one seeks to mark love's formative activity within the heart Jean Luc Marion's rigorous description of the gift of love offers to Augustine's theology a phenomenological texture by which the Trinitarian love given in revelation might be made incarnate in one's life The Gift of Love presents a reason for hope that while coming to know the Trinity that God is might be impossible for human beings it is made possible by God's antecedent gift of love given in the missions Son and Holy Spirit and iconically received in the particularity of one's own love

The Love of God Poured Out: Grace and the Gifts of the Holy Spirit in St. Thomas Aquinas John Meinert, 2018-05-01 What is the relationship between the gifts of the Holy Spirit and the action of grace? John Meinert's The Love of God Poured Out enters into the major positions and debates within Thomism to forge a new synthesis on this topic within the greater body of scholarship existing today. Meinert reads Aquinas's thought on the gifts of the Holy Spirit and grace in an integral and analogous way. Not only does The Love of God Poured Out aid scholars in understanding Aquinas's thought on these two issues, it also once more clarifies the truth that the Holy Spirit and his gifts are neither a devout appendix to moral theology nor a pious nod to tradition. They are the heart and height of the moral life: a life lived subditus Deo.
