Unpredictable entertaining and thought provoking fantasy take on all the characters from mythology and their interactions with the human world

Highly recommend reading when you have time to just finish it

I couldn t put it down

It may not be nice to fool Mother Nature but to be fair she started it

Once again I m the puny human Keeper stuck cleaning up the magical world

I m Cleopatra O Keefe owner of the Florida bar directly on the line between the human and magical worlds

Oddities are the norm

The fact Poseidon spends more time sashaying his speedo clad exceptionally fine butt around my bar than he does managing his seas doesn t help

He s pissed off the entire mer race who considers murderous rampages a reasonable response

Not helpful

Plus Gaia decided that upending the balance of the entire freaking planet is a rational solution

My job to combine the human and magical worlds is a teetering mess

Let s see who else can jump into this mix

Hades Perfect

His grand scheme involves me rounding up Gaia before she blows the Earth sideways and tucking her into Tartarus to chill in the void for a few millennia

Some plan right

My problem is gods don t make requests

Ludicrous

Yes

Saying no

Not an option

Did I mention it s Bike Week

I m up to my cheeky shorts in bikers booze and shenanigans

I multitask like a boss but this right here this stuff will kill me

I need a drink

Breast Imaging Review Biren Shah, Gina Fundaro, Sabala Mandava, 2010-06-25

Breast Imaging Review

A Quick Guide to Essential Diagnoses serves as a quick review of essential radiology findings for interpreting multimodality images of the breast

The book includes 92 easy to read cases presenting common diagnoses with over 360 high quality figures encompassing mammography ultrasound MRI and PET images

Also included are concise pearls covering the basics of interventional breast procedures such as MRI guided breast biopsy galactography and ultrasound guided cyst aspirations along with high yield facts vital to the practice of breast imaging

Co authored by Drs Biren A Shah Gina M Fundaro and Sabala Mandava

this book successfully integrates a comprehensive array of images diagnoses and discussion points into a quickly reviewable format

Breast Imaging Review is a valuable resource for radiology residents preparing to take the oral boards as well as fellows and practicing radiologists interested in reviewing the basics of breast imaging interpretation and interventional procedures The Demands of Motherhood L. Smyth,2012-04-11 Drawing on qualitative interviews with forty middle class mothers living in Northern Ireland and the US this book explores the strategies women adopt as they take on and creatively re make motherhood in ways which allow them to cope How to Build a Human Emma Byrne,2021-07-01 Byrne s book is about scientific parenting and it is very welcome indeed breezy and digestible this is such a good book Tom Whipple The Times Kids aren t all the same You can t follow instructions and expect success every time So what if parents approached their children as questions to be answered and not problems to be solved Scientist Emma Byrne takes evidence based information on everything from physical and emotional development to what is really happening during sleep and separation anxiety then shows how to apply it to the unique child in front of you She challenges perceived wisdom by focusing on the variance as well as the mean because your child is an individual not an average Like all good scientists you re going to have a few missteps along the way You ll reach dead ends you ll need to wrack your brain for new approaches But by staying curious creative and paying attention to what s really happening with your family Emma Byrne will help you figure it out Just in time for everything to change once again

Adult Supervision Required Markella B. Rutherford,2011-08-03 Adult Supervision Required considers the contradictory ways in which contemporary American culture has imagined individual autonomy for parents and children In many ways today s parents and children have more freedom than ever before There is widespread respect for children s autonomy as distinct individuals and a broad range of parenting styles are flourishing Yet it may also be fair to say that there is an unprecedented fear of children s and parents freedom Dread about Amber Alerts and stranger danger have put an end to the unsupervised outdoor play enjoyed by earlier generations of suburban kids Similarly fear of bad parenting has not only given rise to a cottage industry of advice books for anxious parents but has also granted state agencies greater power to police the family Using popular parenting advice literature as a springboard for a broader sociological analysis of the American family Markella B Rutherford explores how our increasingly psychological conception of the family might be jeopardizing our appreciation for parents and children s public lives and civil liberties

Taking Chances Karen M. O'Neill, Daniel J. Van Abs, 2016-06-03 Humanity is deeply committed to living along the world s shores but a catastrophic storm like Sandy which took hundreds of lives and caused many billions of dollars in damages shines a bright light at how costly and vulnerable life on a shoreline can be Taking Chances offers a wide ranging exploration of the diverse challenges of Sandy and asks if this massive event will really change how coastal living and development is managed Bringing together leading researchers including biologists urban planners utilities experts and climatologists among others Taking Chances illuminates reactions to the dangers revealed by Sandy Focusing on New Jersey New York and other hard hit areas the contributors explore whether Hurricane Sandy has indeed transformed our perceptions of coastal hazards if we have made radically new plans in response to Sandy and what we think should be done over the long run to improve coastal resilience Surprisingly one essay notes that while a large majority of New Jerseyans identified Sandy with climate change and favored carefully assessing the likelihood of damage from future storms before rebuilding the Shore their political leaders quickly poured millions into reconstruction Indeed much here is disquieting One contributor points out that investors scared off from further investments on the shore are quickly replaced by new investors sustaining or increasing the overall human exposure to risk Likewise a study of the Gowanus Canal area of Brooklyn shows that even after Sandy swamped the area with toxic flood waters plans to convert abandoned industrial lots around the canal into high density condominiums went on undeterred By contrast utilities emergency officials and others who routinely make long term plans have changed operations in response to the storm and provide examples of adaptation in the face of climate change Will Sandy be a tipping point in coastal policy debates or simply dismissed as a once in a century anomaly This thought provoking collection of essays in Taking Chances makes an important contribution to this debate

Please Yell at My Kids Marina Lopes, 2025-04-22 Acclaimed journalist Marina Lopes travels the world to learn how diverse cultures embrace communal parenting bringing home practical strategies for American parents on how to stop doing it all reimagine their communities and build their own village Parenting in America is notoriously challenging no federally supported parental leave a lack of mental health support a crushing combination of workplace pressure and aspirational parental perfection and the fresh hell that is the playgroup Facebook page But what if there was a better way The simple fact is that parenting looks wildly different across nations In Please Yell at My Kids journalist Marina Lopes travels the globe learning from parents in Singapore Brazil Mozambique Malaysia Sweden China and more to provide practical actionable ways to reimagine parenting in America At the heart of many global approaches to parenting lies one simple and not so simple element community In American parenting is at best a dual mission. But globally parenthood is more often a team sport played in the center of a community that helps support and occasionally drives you up the wall. What can we learn from Brazilian birth parties, Singaporean grandparents and Danish babies sleeping soundly outside of coffee shops? And how can that be integrated into the lives of American readers even if we can't hop on a plane and wing our way to the land of paid parental leave? From guiding readers on how to define their own non-negotiable values to navigating tricky conversations with their in-laws, Please Yell at My Kids empowers parents to create a supportive community of care, rediscover the joy in parenting and raise resilient independent children without having to go it alone.

The 24-Carrot Manager Adrian Gostick, Chester Elton, 2002. After years of being driven forward by fear and intimidation, troops aren't willing to fight the battle anymore. They're leaving the ranks to join a growing number of recruits at firms that lead with carrots, say nationally renowned employee recognition experts Adrian Gostick and Chester Elton. In this companion volume to their successful Managing with Carrots, Gostick and Elton present a remarkable story of how a great leader can unleash human potential, creating success in either good economies or bad. Providing strategies and solutions for the managers of today, this book offers answers for improving employee commitment and profitability through strategically acknowledging employee effort. How is it done? The answer is deceptively simple: with carrots. Plentiful examples show how to choose the right reward for each employee, how to time the giving of a reward to motivate performance, how to effectively present rewards, when to give praise in private and when to make it a public celebration, and how to motivate employees to work harder and work smarter with the company's goals in mind.
