Holbein Detailed Paintings:

Holbein: Detailed Paintings in Colour Narim Bender, 2015-01-25 Hans Holbein the Younger was German painter one of the greatest portraitists and most exquisite draftsmen of all time It is the artist's record of the court of King Henry VIII of England as well as the taste that he virtually imposed upon that court that was his most remarkable achievement Holbein's mature portraits present an intriguing play between surface and depth The sitter's outlines and position within the frame are carefully calculated while inscriptions applied on the surface in gold leaf lock the sitter's head into place Juxtaposed with this finely tuned two dimensional design are illusionist miracles of velvet fur feathers needlework's and leather Holbein acted not only as a portraitist but also as a fashion designer for the court This choice of work indicates Holbein's Mannerist concentration on surface texture and detail of design a concern that in some ways precluded the incorporation of great psychological depth in his portraits The Paintings of Hans Holbein Hans Holbein, Paul Ganz, 1956 Delphi Complete
