Extraordinary Love Deborah B. Taylor, 2022-07-22 There is a fire in the house The fire is in the heart of the wife who read Extraordinary Love and took heed of the principles written therein She was tired of smelling the stench of her decaying marriage and accessed the solution she so desperately needed The extraordinary love of God for humanity made the solution available when Jesus Christ was nailed to a cross on a hill called Calvary His precious blood is the healing stream that can flow to every heart and heal every kind of disorder God is inviting disenchanted wives to seek him for the solution to whatever is the ailment in the marriage Deborah Taylor was capable of writing Extraordinary Love first of all because God gave her the assignment Secondly God blessed her to sit at the feet of an anointed pastor who conducted extensive biblical teachings on marriage That was where Ms Taylor acquired valuable knowledge and gained a clear understanding of what God requires of a husband and wife Thirdly before Ms Taylor became a Christian she was engaged in a romantic relationship which carried her to depths of love never known or imagined The love was a raging fire in her heart which gave her insight into the remarkable sweetness and beauty of love between a man and a woman Throughout the book the extraordinary love of God for mankind is continually demonstrated However the primary focus is on instructing wives how to apply God s wisdom to their marriages God longs for them to become aware of the fact that he is an All Consuming Fire who can burn up the rubbish in the marriage and set the marriage ablaze with the most awesome extraordinary love that will rage so sweetly deep in their hearts 20

Communicating God's Word in a Complex World Daniel

R. Shaw, Charles E. Van Engen, 2003-08-04 Communicating God's Word in a Complex World reaches out to the growing number of missionaries, pastors, Bible translators and teachers, mission and theological educators and students dealing with communicating the gospel. This is increasingly difficult in today's pluralist and global contexts. What was God's message and how has spreading that message changed through the generations? The answer to that question requires a hermeneutical process that seeks to understand the biblical text and the context in which it was originally presented. R. Daniel Shaw and Charles Van Engen say that contemporary proclaimers of God's word can model their approach after that of the writers of scripture who reinterpreted and restated their received texts for their audiences. Thus Gospel communication is impacted by the way humans know God. This in turn is informed by contexts. Communicating God's Word in a Complex World draws lessons from the biblical authors themselves as a guide for how best to present God's message. Scribes and Translators

Natalio Fernández Marcos, 1993 This volume based on recently published Old Latin material provides fascinating information and discussion on the textual pluralism attested by the Hebrew texts and versions of the books of Kings, an intriguing page in the history of the biblical texts. Dodeka: Book of the Prophets Scriptural Research Institute, 1901 In the mid 3rd century BC King Ptolemy II Philadelphus of Egypt ordered a translation of the ancient Hebrew scriptures for the Library of Alexandria which resulted in the creation of the Septuagint as well as several other books of Jewish and Samaritan scriptures including the Book of Enoch, Book of Job, Testaments of Abraham, Isaac and Jacob and the Dodeka. The Dodeka was not part of the collection of texts the Jews fleeing Egypt carried with them from the Jewish Temple in Elephantine and is therefore believed to have been translated into Greek later circa 180 BC. It would eventually be added to the Septuagint as the Book of Dodeka circa 140 BC and then much later be divided into its twelve constituent books by the early Christians in the 3rd century AD subsequently called the twelve minor prophets. The books comprising the Dodeka all date from between 900 and 500 BC and represent the works of twelve ancient prophets which in the original Greek translation represented several different gods. These were not Jewish prophets but Israelite prophets mostly living the age before King Josiah banned the old gods in approximately 625 BC. Most of the books in the Dodeka were written before King Josiah's reforms. The books of Hosea, Amos and Micah are set during the 8th century BC when the kingdom of Samaria fought a series of wars against its more powerful northern neighbor Assyria, ultimately being conquered by the Neo Assyrian Empire circa 722 BC. The books of Joel, Obadiah and Jonah follow although their exact settings are not clear. The books of Nahum, Habakkuk and Zephaniah follow set in the 7th century BC as the Kingdom of Judea struggled for its survival between the powers of the time: Assyria to the north, Egypt to the south and Babylon to the east, ultimately falling to the Neo Babylonian Empire circa 586 BC. There is a gap in the prophets during the era when Babylon ruled Judea and they continue with the books of Haggai and the first half of Zachariah set in the late 6th century after the Persians have conquered the Babylonian Empire. Combining the various Elohim that appear to have been the text the Greeks translated including Shaddai, Shaddayin, On, Aven, Dagon, Tirath, Tirosh.

Yitzhar Reshef Blight Mot Hades Sheol and Abaddon Destruction Ba al Hadad Ba al Hammon Qetesh Asherah Sydyk and Shemesh it strongly suggests that the text was heavily edited in the Hasmonean era when Yahweh Sabaoth replaced Lord El Unfortunately the existing Dead Sea Scrolls shed little light on the situation as they date to the era the edits would have taken place but are in the script that should only show the edited version Nevertheless they are so damaged almost none of the questions about the differences between the Dodeka and Masoretic Texts could be resolved even if they were in the Canaanite script
