Archive Everything Gabriella Giannachi, 2023-09-19 How the archive evolved to include new technologies practices and media and how it became the apparatus through which we map the everyday In Archive Everything Gabriella Giannachi traces the evolution of the archive into the apparatus through which we map the everyday The archive traditionally a body of documents or a site for the preservation of documents changed over the centuries to encompass often concurrently a broad but interrelated number of practices not traditionally considered as archival Archives now consist of not only documents and sites but also artworks installations museums social media platforms and mediated and mixed reality environments Giannachi tracks the evolution of these diverse archival practices across the centuries Archives today offer a multiplicity of viewing platforms to replay the past capture the present and map our presence Giannachi uses archaeological practices to explore all the layers of the archive analyzing Lynn Hershman Leeson's Women Art Revolution project a digital archive of feminist artists She considers the archive as a memory laboratory with case studies that include visitors encounters with archival materials in the Jewish Museum in Berlin She discusses the importance of participatory archiving examining the multimedia roadshow Digital Diaspora Family Reunion as an example She explores the use of the archive in works that express the relationship between ourselves and our environment citing Andy Warhol and Ant Farm among others And she looks at the transmission of the archive through the body in performance bioart and database artworks closing with a detailed analysis of Lynn Hershman Leeson's Infinity Engine

Life after New Media Sarah Kember, Joanna Zylińska, 2014-12-05 An argument for a shift in understanding new media from a fascination with devices to an examination of the complex processes of mediation In Life after New Media Sarah Kember and Joanna Zylińska make a case for a significant shift in our understanding of new media They argue that we should move beyond our fascination with objects computers smart phones iPods Kindles to an examination of the interlocking technical social and biological processes of mediation Doing so they say reveals that life itself can be understood as mediated subject to the same processes of reproduction transformation flattening and patenting undergone by other media forms By Kember and Zylińska's account the dispersal of media and technology into our biological and social lives intensifies our entanglement with nonhuman entities Mediation all encompassing and indivisible becomes for them a key trope for understanding our being in the technological world Drawing on the work of Bergson and Derrida while displaying a rigorous playfulness toward philosophy Kember and Zylińska examine the multiple flows of mediation Importantly they also consider the ethical necessity of making a cut to any media processes in order to contain them Considering topics that range from media enacted cosmic events to the intelligent home they propose a new way of doing media studies that is simultaneously critical and creative and that performs an encounter between theory and practice

Inked: Tattoos and Body Art around the World Margo DeMello, 2014-05-30 In recent decades tattoos have gone from being a subculture curiosity in Western culture to mainstream and commonplace This two volume set provides broad coverage of tattooing and body art in the United States today as well as around the world and throughout human history In the 1960s tattooing was illegal in many parts of the United States Today tattooing is fully ingrained in mainstream culture and is estimated to be a multi billion dollar industry This exhaustive work contains approximately 400 entries on tattooing providing historical information that enables readers to fully understand the methods employed the meanings of and the motivations behind tattooing one of the most ancient ways humans mark themselves The encyclopedia covers all important aspects of the topic of tattooing the major types of tattooing the cultural groups associated with tattooing the regions of the world where tattooing has been performed the origins of modern tattooing in prehistory and the meaning of each society's use of tattoos Major historical and contemporary figures associated with tattooing including tattooists tattooed people and tattoo promoters receive due attention for their contributions The entries and sidebars also address the sociological movements involved with tattooing the organizations the media dedicated to tattooing such as television shows movies magazines websites and books and the popular conventions carnivals and fairs that have showcased tattooing
