A. F. Witzsche, 2005-01-01 This novel presents the third of the nine part series by Witzsche The series is designed to explore the great renaissance principle the Principle of Universal Love and its power to enrich humanity and uplift civilization Philosophy The Invention of Humanity Siep Stuurman, 2017-02-20 For much of history strangers were seen as barbarians seldom as fellow human beings The notion of common humanity had to be invented Drawing on global thinkers Siep Stuurman traces ideas of equality and difference across continents and civilizations from antiquity to present day debates about human rights and the clash of civilizations In Praise of Historical Anthropology Alexandre Coello de la

Rosa, Josep Lluís Mateo Dieste, 2020-01-24 In Praise of Historical Anthropology is based on a fundamental conviction the study of society cannot be undertaken without considering the weight of history and separations between disciplines in academics need to be bridged for the benefit of knowledge Anthropology cannot be limited to situating its object in its immediate context rather its true subject of study is society as a historical problem The book describes the complex attempts to transcend this separation presenting perspectives methodologies and direct applications for the study of power relations and systems of social classification paying special attention to the reconstruction of colonial situations Following the maxim expounded by John and Jean Comaroff this book will help us understand that historical anthropology is not a matter of merging the two disciplines of anthropology and history but rather considering societies in their historically situated dimension and applying the tools of the social and human sciences to the analysis In this vein the book reviews the complex attempts to bridge disciplinary separations and theoretical proposals coming from very different traditions The text consequently opens up hegemonic perspectives to include other anthropologies Proceedings of the Engineers' Club of

Philadelphia, 1923 Roses at Dawn in an Ice Age World Rolf Witzsche, 2005 Mankind is the child of the Ice Age Our more than 2 million year history extends through the entire Pleistocene Ice Age Epoch We were shaped by the need to be creative to survive and still are Now that our warm interglacial epoch is nearly over we find ourselves challenged to be creative once again as the global agriculture and with it our food supply will be radically diminished once we get back into the Ice Age World Can we protect our agriculture in indoor facilities That sounds like science fiction right It will take a hundred years to do it But will we upgrade our human dimension to do it especially in the way we relate to one another as human beings We are deeply divided to the very grassroots social level and isolated The needed Ice Age Renaissance requires a taller foundation The novel explores the countless dimensions that are involved in breaking the ice in our social domain at the level
