

Growing Up

The day I could no longer walk with ease
Beneath the table, made it clear to me
That I was growing. Soon my parents' knees
Were way below my eye-line. I could see
Above the window-sill and out, far out,
Into a world where adults knew it all
And children yearned to grow and be about
Such fascinating business. To be tall
Held out a promise greater than mere size.

When I achieved full stature I would know
Those peaks of knowledge conquered by the wise -
All that remained for me to do was grow.
Yet wisdom gained shows wisdom still ahead;
Grown up, I find I'm growing down instead.

Memoir Sally Pearson Congleton, 2011-10-05 Growing Up White in Brassfield 1946 Every room in the funeral home was full I guess Daddy knew about everybody in the county and the town The grown men carried on something awful laughing and talking about tobacco stripping and hog prices Didn't they know my Daddy was dead I always appreciated the fact that there was one entire room full of colored people at daddy's funeral The entire community must have come out Of course this was long before integration They had no choice to where they sat Seeing the whole collective bunch of neighbors there together made a great impact on my heart

A Growing Up Story Traumea, 2018-03-03 A story about a girl coming into her teens My aim was not merely to entertain but also to stimulate reflection just a little Certainly children want to grow up but they also need to be raised and for that reason I hope to have added an interest for the thoughtful parental adult
