Up from Invisibility Larry Gross, 2001-12-26 A half century ago gay men and lesbians were all but invisible in the media and in turn popular culture With the lesbian and gay liberation movement came a profoundly new sense of homosexual community and empowerment and the emergence of gay people onto the media's stage And yet even as the mass media have been shifting the terms of our public conversation toward a greater acknowledgment of diversity does the emerging visibility of gay men and women do justice to the complexity and variety of their experience Or is gay identity manipulated and contrived by media that are unwilling and perhaps unable to fully comprehend and honor it While positive representations of gays and lesbians are a cautious step in the right direction media expert Larry Gross argues that the entertainment and news media betray a lingering inability to break free from proscribed limitations in order to embrace the complex reality of gay identity While noting major advances like the opening of the Oscar Wilde Memorial Bookstore the first gay bookstore in the country or the rise of The Advocate from small newsletter to influential national paper Gross takes the measure of somewhat more ambiguous milestones like the first lesbian kiss on television or the first gay character in a newspaper comic strip

Son of A Gun, Daddy Must Die Charlie (Chawtoma) Davis, 2014-05-08 The writer brings alive the story of an inner circle of friends who are sworn to protect an American girl of Mexican and Italian descent after losing her mother at the age of twelve years old It is a story of how rape sucks the life out of its victims a heart thumping drama of how the suspects are held to an innocent plea over a period of twenty five years until DNA evidence proves otherwise It is a story of how the grandfather s sanity is pushed to its limit but the bonds of friendship within the inner circle of friends are not broken The writer weighs in on the cruel burden of becoming pregnant after a rape and allowing the child to be born while experiencing the painful future and mental destruction of the victim s recovery Just trying to stay alive after the tragedy is difficult It is a story of how revenge becomes a resourceful tactic to win back the dignity of a rape victim in the shadow of a painful situation and how an eighty year old ex police officer and grandfather becomes a smart criminal mastermind by casting revenge on the accusers The accusers painfully discover it was the greatest mistake of their past when they raped a college student just before her graduation ceremony A valuable pledge of loyalty to the victim becomes a painful lesson to the accusers
