International Handbook of Universities ,2009 A Better Future Jacqueline Bhabha,Wenona Giles,Faraaz Mahomed,2020-09-17 Policy makers advocates and scholars have long concentrated on the importance of equal access to primary and secondary education as a foundation for a democratic and just society Despite the growing importance of higher and specialist education in an increasingly technological and skill focused global market tertiary education has attracted much less attention And yet universities and colleges are epicentres of egregious disparities in access which impinge on traditionally marginalized communities such as racial minorities migrants indigenous populations and people with disabilities By drawing attention to this issue and assembling first rate material from scholars and policy makers across the globe this book performs an invaluable service for those interested in understanding and fighting a highly significant violation of educational opportunity and social justice

Adolescent Psychology in Today's World Michael J. Nakkula,Andrew J. Schneider-Muñoz,2018-11-02 This groundbreaking three volume set spotlights how conditions around the world are affecting the healthy development of adolescents in their respective environments on all six continents Continually unstable or perpetually poor economic conditions globalization and rapid technological change are just three of the forces affecting a group 1 2 billion strong today a demographic poised to become our world leaders and catalysts in the not too distant future the world s adolescents Led by two editors who have been dedicated to studying adolescent development worldwide for decades this novel collection of works from contributors in more than 40 countries emphasizes how possibilities for healthy mental and physical development are affected by the difficulties youths face in their countries and how these challenges have shaped and are shaping contemporary teenage life today The set comprehensively addresses issues for adolescents across the globe such as the day to day challenges of poverty inadequate education violence or war disease reproductive matters globalization and technological challenges and more while also providing a strengths based focus in the volumes showing how and why some teenagers in each country have surmounted the challenges and forged stronger characters to better their worlds These stories document more than personal victories and their experiences matter to far more than the adolescents themselves In its State of the World s Children 2011 report UNICEF noted that the world community needs to turn its attention to adolescents in need explaining that focusing on this large and potentially powerful group makes economic sense as well as being a necessary step in working towards achieving human justice By addressing the risks challenges and strengths of teenagers as a group in countries worldwide this work serves to break the cycle of poverty violence discrimination and death for adolescents

Making Public in a Privatized World David A. McDonald,2016-02-15 How do we provide effective public services in a deeply neoliberal world In the wake of the widespread failure of privatisation efforts societies in the global south are increasingly seeking progressive ways of recreating the public sector With contributors ranging from cutting edge scholars to activists working in health water and energy provision and with case studies covering a broad spectrum of localities and actors Making Public in a Privatized World uncovers the radically different ways in which public services are being reshaped from the grassroots up From communities holding the state accountable for public health in rural Guatemala to waste pickers in India and decentralized solar electricity initiatives in Africa the essays in this collection offer probing insights into the complex ways in which people are building genuine alternatives to privatization while also illustrating the challenges which communities face in creating public services which are not subordinated to the logic of the market or to the monolithic state entities of the past
