Critical Perspectives on Education Policy and Schools, Families, and Communities Sue Winton, Gillian Parekh, 2020-03-01 Critical Perspectives on Education Policy and Schools Families and Communities offers scholars students and practitioners important new knowledge about how current policies impact families schools and community partnerships The book s authors share a critical orientation towards policy and policy research and invite readers to think differently about what policy is who policymakers are and what policy can achieve Their chapters discuss findings from research grounded in diverse theories including institutional ethnography critical disability theory and critical race theory The authors encourage scholars of family school and community partnerships to ask who benefits from policies and who loses and how proposed reforms maintain or disrupt existing relations of power The chapters present original research on a broad range of policies at the local state provincial and national levels in Canada and the USA Some authors look closely at the enactment of specific district policies including a school district s language translation policy and a policy to create local advisory bodies as part of decentralization efforts Other chapters reveal the often unacknowledged yet necessary work parents do to meet their children s needs and enable schools to operate A few chapters focus on challenges and paradoxes of including families and community members in policymaking processes including a case where parents demonstrated a preference for a policy that research demonstrates can be detrimental to their children s future education opportunities Another set of chapters emphasizes the centrality of policy texts and how language influences the educational experiences and engagement of students and their families Each chapter concludes with a discussion of implications of the research for educators families and other community partners

Imposing Their Will Jack Lipinsky, 2011-06-15 Showing how issues such as immigration restrictions poverty anti Semitism and the Holocaust contributed to cooperation between institutions and individuals Jack Lipinsky provides compelling insights into the formation of one of the world s great Jewish communities He studies the re emergence of the Canadian Jewish Congress the establishment of the Toronto Free Hebrew School the rise of professionalism in the various philanthropic organisations and traces the community's shift away from the influence of Montreal. An illuminating look at the growth and strength of a community. Imposing Their Will provides valuable new ways to understand Canadian Jewry, the diaspora, ethnic governance and the development of Canadian multiculturalism. Resources in Education, 2000-10 Digital State at the Leading Edge Sanford Borins, Kenneth Kernaghan, David Brown, Nick Bontis, Perri 6, Fred Thompson, 2007-01-20 The impact of information technology (IT) on government in the last five years has been profound. Using the governments of Canada and Ontario both recognized as international leaders in the use of IT as case studies, Digital State at the Leading Edge is the first attempt to take a comprehensive view of the impact of IT upon the whole of government, including politics and campaigning, public consultation, service delivery, knowledge management and procurement. Using the concepts of channel choice, procurement, market analysis, organizational integration and digital leadership, this study explores the interrelationships among all these aspects of the application of IT to government and politics. The authors seek to understand how IT is transforming government and what the nature of that transformation is. In the process, they offer an explanation of Canada's relative success and conclude with practical advice to politicians and public servants about how to manage IT in government more effectively. Based on new and original research undertaken over the last five years, the findings of this intriguing study will be of interest to those studying or working in the fields of public administration, political science and information technology. Gender and Sexuality Diversity in a Culture of Limitation Tania Ferfolja, Jacqueline Ullman, 2020-05-10 Gender and Sexuality Diversity in a Culture of Limitation provides an outstanding and insightful critique of the ways that contemporary education is impacted by a range of political, social and cultural influences that inform the approaches that schools take in relation to gender and sexuality diversity. By applying feminist, poststructural and Foucauldian frameworks, the book examines the ongoing impact of broader socio-cultural discourse on the lives of gender and sexuality diverse students and teachers. Beginning with an overview of the impact of how a culture of limitation is realised in Australia, the focus moves beyond this context to examine state and federal policies from comparable societies in countries including the USA and the UK and their effect on the production of knowledges and what's permissible to include in educational curriculum. This research-driven book thus provides a comparative international overview of the current state of gender and sexuality diversity in schools and convincingly demonstrates that despite some empowerment of gender and sexuality diverse individuals, silencing and marginalization remain powerful forces. This book will be of great interest to graduate and postgraduate students, academics, professionals and policy makers interested in the field of gender and sexuality in education. It is essential reading for those involved in pre-service and in-service teacher education, diversity education, the sociology of education as well as education more generally. The Literature of the Nonprofit Sector, 1992 The first volume was a cumulative volume which contained the Foundation Center collection. Subsequent editions include all the Foundation Center acquisitions acquired annually as well as other current literature. Financing Education and Training in Canada Harry

M. Kitchen, Douglas Allen Lauriston Auld, Canadian Tax Foundation, 1995 Associations Canada , 2007 Leaside Jane Pitfield, 2008-09-03 Leaside is a most comprehensive look at the people significant events and built heritage all of which contributed to the creation of this distinctive community Named after John Lea a successful farmer whose house built in 1829 is believed to be the first brick house in York County Leaside grew from a railway settlement into a prosperous urban town With its roots embedded in the history of three railways Leaside has a unique industrial heritage that played a key role in the war effort during both World Wars including its being the site of munitions plants a wooden plane factory and a base for the Royal Flying Corps Leaside was also home to the Durant Motors of Canada and later the Nash cars Canada Wire and Cable and the popular Thorncliffe Race Track Did you know that Canada s first airmail delivery touched down in Leaside and that an Olympic calibre ski jump once operated in the Don Valley Jane Pitfield s Leaside represent a nostalgic journey into the heritage of a most remarkable neighbourhood still proudly retaining its identity as part of Toronto
