German Edition S Llc:

Letters to Milena Franz Kafka, 2015-11-03 The passionate but doomed epistolary love affair between a Czech translator and one of the greatest writers of the twentieth century the author of The Metamorphosis and The Trial Extraordinary touching horrifying brilliant sickly and heartbreaking The most significant key we have for a reading of the author's novels and short stories The New York Times In no other work does Franz Kafka reveal himself as in Letters to Milena which begins as a business correspondence but soon develops into an epistolary love affair Kafka's Czech translator Milena Jesenská was a gifted and charismatic twenty three year old who was uniquely able to recognize Kafka's complex genius and his even more complex character For thirty six year old Kafka she was a living fire such as I have never seen It was to Milena that he revealed his most intimate self and eventually entrusted his diaries for safekeeping

Letter to the Father/Brief an den Vater Franz Kafka, 2013-06-26 A son's poignant letter to his father from the author of The Metamorphosis and The Trial and one of the most important writers of the twentieth century One of the great confessions of literature The New York Times Book Review Franz Kafka wrote this letter to his father Hermann Kafka in November 1919 Max Brod Kafka's literary executor relates that Kafka actually gave the letter to his mother to hand to his father hoping it might renew a relationship that had lost itself in tension and frustration on both sides But Kafka's probing of the deep flaw in their relationship spared neither his father nor himself He could not help seeing the failure of communication between father and son as another moment in the larger existential predicament depicted in so much of his work Probably realizing the futility of her son's gesture Julie Kafka did not deliver the letter but instead returned it to its author
