No Safe House Jan Garnett, 2024-04-05 Kathleen Kot Cafferty is an optimist, a dedicated professional and rather fond of control until she is suddenly swept into the RCMP's Witness Protection Program with only her dog Medley for company. When the safe house becomes anything but safe, Kot realizes that she has to disappear on her own terms to somewhere that not even the police can find her. Kot and Medley paddle into the Salish Sea at night to hide until the need for supplies forces her to head for one of the larger islands on the horizon. On Atticus Island, Kot finds work, friends and a measure of security but she still looks forward to returning to her real life. Things get even more interesting when a global celebrity with lifelong roots on Atticus takes a keen interest in her. When Kot discovers a young girl living secretly in the island's decommissioned lighthouse, she is torn between the law and the need to protect the fragile safety that each of them has found. Meanwhile, detectives achieve a breakthrough in their investigations into deadly drug smuggling through the Port of Vancouver, uncovering unexpected links to events on Atticus Island. After a stranger appears on the island who is openly hunting for Kot, her survival rests on the resourcefulness of her friends and ultimately on the not so rare altruism of another species. No Safe House was short-listed for the Crime Writers of Canada's 2023 Best Unpublished Manuscript Award. Reviewer's comments included an ambitious and lyrical novel that takes its time to draw together disparate threads and characters into a transcendent whole and exquisite description, superb dialogue and a complex and topical plotline.
