female lens Brookes argues that while European men erected the political scaffolding to create a small nation women created the infrastructure necessary for colonial society to succeed Concepts of home marriage and family brought by settler women and integral to the developing state transformed the lives of M ori women The small scale of New Zealand society facilitated rapid change so that by the twenty first century women are no longer defined by family contexts In her long awaited book Barbara Brookes traces the factors that drove that change Her lively narrative draws on a wide variety of sources to map the importance in women s lives not just of legal and economic changes but of smaller joys such as the arrival of a piano from England or the freedom of riding a bicycle
