which argues that Christ has taken the place of sinners and is punished by God in their place believing that in turn it raised serious questions about the character and nature of God Instead he taught that Christ had come to save people from their sins and not from a Divine penalty for their sins The problem was not the need to appease a wrathful God but the disease of cosmic evil itself The second series tracts Religious tract society, 1850 The Church, in a Series of Discourses Sylvester
