for English language learners Powerful Writing Structures Adrienne Gear, 2020-02-06 This timely book uses thinking structures to deepen student writing. It revolves around brain pockets to help students appreciate the qualities of different writing forms. Some powerful examples include memory pockets for personal narrative writing, fact pockets for nonfiction and imagination pockets for story writing. Detailed lesson plans are featured along with sample anchor books and book lists. Based on extensive classroom testing, student samples throughout the book illustrate this unique approach to teaching writing. Suggestions for setting up an effective writing program and assessment tips for guiding instruction complete this comprehensive approach to developing a year-long writing program. Great Genre Writing Lessons Heather Clayton, 2003 Guide students through each step of the writing process from selecting topics to publishing polished pieces. Step by step lessons and reproducibles cover five genres: how-to pieces, fictional and personal narratives, informational reports, and essays and persuasive writing. Teachers will also find graphic organizers, rubrics, and checklists, examples of students writing, extension activities, and helpful hints for managing writers' workshop. For use with Grades 4-8.
