Marble's Round the World Travel-guide, Fully Illustrated, Maps-- Itineraries Fred Elmer Marble,1927 Basho's Narrow Road Matsuo Basho,2013-06-15 A stimulating exploration of the haiku masterpiece Matsuo Basho 1644 94 is considered Japan s greatest haiku poet Narrow Road to the Interior Oku no Hosomichi is his masterpiece Ostensibly a chronological account of the poet s five month journey in 1689 into the deep country north and west of the old capital Edo the work is in fact artful and carefully sculpted rich in literary and Zen allusion and filled with great insights and vital rhythms In Basho s Narrow Road Spring and Autumn Passages poet and translator Hiroaki Sato presents the complete work in English and examines the threads of history geography philosophy and literature that are woven into Basho s exposition He details in particular the extent to which Basho relied on the community of writers with whom he traveled and joined in linked verse renga poetry sessions an example of which A Farewell Gift to Sora is included in this volume In explaining how and why Basho made the literary choices he did Sato shows how the poet was able to transform his passing observations into words that resonate across time and culture The Moral

Imagination John Paul Lederach,2010 John Paul Lederach s work in the field of conciliation and mediation is internationally recognized He has provided consultation training and direct mediation in a range of situations from the Miskito Sandinista conflict in Nicaragua to Somalia Northern Ireland Tajikistan and the Philippines His influential 1997 book Building Peace has become a classic in the discipline In this book Lederach poses the question How do we transcend the cycles of violence that bewitch our human community while still living in them Peacebuilding in his view is both a learned skill and an art Finding this art he says requires a worldview shift Conflict professionals must envision their work as a creative act an exercise of what Lederach terms the moral imagination This imagination must however emerge from and speak to the hard realities of human affairs The peacebuilder must have one foot in what is and one foot beyond what exists The book is organized around four guiding stories that point to the moral imagination but are incomplete Lederach seeks to understand what happened in these individual cases and how they are relevant to large scale change His purpose is not to propose a grand new theory Instead he wishes to stay close to the messiness of real processes and change and to recognize the serendipitous nature of the discoveries and insights that emerge along the way overwhelmed the equally important creative process Like most professional peacemakers Lederach sees his work as a religious vocation Lederach meditates on his own calling and on the spirituality that moves ordinary people to reject violence and seek reconciliation Drawing on his twenty five years of experience in the field he explores the evolution of his understanding of peacebuilding and points the way toward the future of the art http://www.loc.gov/catdir/enhancements/fy0616/2004011794_d.html
