History Of The Gatling Gun Detachment:

History of the Gatling Gun Detachment John Parker, Senior Lecturer in African History John Parker, VI, 2015-02-25 This is a history that looks at the innovating gatling gun which was a predecessor of modern machine guns Gatling guns had a huge effect on warfare at the turn of the 20th century From the preface On the morning of July 1st the dismounted cavalry including my regiment stormed Kettle Hill driving the Spaniards from their trenches After taking the crest I made the men under me turn and begin volley firing at the San Juan Blockhouse and intrenchments against which Hawkins and Kent's Infantry were advancing While thus firing there suddenly smote on our ears a peculiar drumming sound One or two of the men cried out The Spanish machine guns but after listening a moment I leaped to my feet and called It's the Gatlings men It's our Gatlings Immediately the troopers began to cheer lustily for the sound was most inspiring Whenever the drumming stopped it was only to open again a little nearer the front Our artillery using black powder had not been able to stand within range of the Spanish rifles but it was perfectly evident that the Gatlings were troubled by no such consideration for they were advancing all the while Soon the infantry took San Juan Hill and after one false start we in turn rushed the next line of block houses and intrenchments and then swung to the left and took the chain of hills immediately fronting Santiago Here I found myself on the extreme front in command of the fragments of all six regiments of the cavalry division I received orders to halt where I was but to hold the hill at all hazards The Spaniards were heavily reinforced and they opened a tremendous fire upon us from their batteries and trenches We laid down just behind the gentle crest of the hill firing as we got the chance but for the most part taking the fire without responding As the afternoon wore on however the Spaniards became bolder and made an attack upon the position They did not push it home but they did advance their firing being redoubled We at once ran forward to the crest and opened on them and as we did so the unmistakable drumming of the Gatlings opened abreast of us to our right and the men cheered again As soon as the attack was definitely repulsed I strolled over to find out about the Gatlings and there I found Lieut Parker with two of his guns right on our left abreast of our men who at that time were closer to the Spaniards than any others

HIST OF THE GATLING GUN DETACH John H. Parker,2017-03-10 From thence on Parker s Gatlings were our inseparable companions throughout the siege They were right up at the front When we dug our trenches he took off the wheels of his guns and put them in the trenches His men and ours slept in the same bomb proofs and shared with one another whenever either side got a supply of beans or coffee and sugar At no hour of the day or night was Parker anywhere but where we wished him to be in the event of an attack If a troop of my regiment was sent off to guard some road or some break in the lines we were almost certain to get Parker to send a Gatling along and whether the change was made by day or by night the Gatling went
