MODEL ANSWER (STREAMLINED) - 'What is the purpose of Source B?' (7/8 marks)

Cambridge IGCSE History

2025 - KQ2

A cartoon published in 1919

The purpose of Source B is to highlight the opinions and readiness of the League of Nations to treat the world into a more peaceful and stable world and also to highlight the potential challenges the League may face in getting their mission off the ground. The cartoon captures the British public and the reaction the cartoonists is attempting to build is one of cautious optimism. The cartoon depicts an army of soldiers 'League of Nations' that appear to be perfectly equipped with a staff labeled 'The Education of History'. Above them, there is a signpost labeled 'The League of Nations' pointing away from the crowd towards the future and towards the future where the sky becomes clear and the sun shines brightly. The caption of the cartoon is 'Ready to fight'. The cartoon symbolises the League of Nations and its goal to take the world out of the dark and turbulent times of World War I and establish a new world order and towards a brighter future, symbolising the ideal that the world can achieve peace. However, the lack of a strong support for the League is immediately clear. The cartoon also suggests a contradiction about whether the League of Nations will eventually be able to get their mission off the ground or whether their plans are perhaps merely wishful thinking and their ultimate hopes and dreams are just a dream or a wish in their long term vision.

Using your knowledge, know that the League of Nations was created as part of the Treaty of Versailles in 1919. Discuss the League's aims for lasting peace following the signing of the Treaty of Versailles in 1919. Discuss the League's role in maintaining peace and its role in the world. The League had many structural and operational flaws from the very outset of its creation. A lack of representation, unbalanced and uneven structure where underrepresented democracies, principles, historical context of suspicion among states that it would be able to carry out its job effectively. Compared with this was the lack of leadership and leading states were from countries like America's unwillingness. Without America's support, the League had the power to enforce and maintain international security and peacekeeping powers, as represented in the cartoon. The cartoonists' viewpoint is one of cautious optimism. It represents the idea of hope for the future and peace with the League of Nations. The cartoonists to achieve its aim, but also highlights the fact that the League may be a difficult task to achieve. In short, the purpose of the cartoon is to acknowledge the full goals of the League while also highlighting the League's foundation upon which these conditions are set. The cartoon suggests that the success of the League is uncertain and that it is about to undertake a significant challenge.

KQ2 – The League of Nations

Q4. 'How useful is Source D to a historian studying ____?' (7/8 marks)

Language matters - Writing like a Historian for source analysis

What is the examiner looking for in the how useful Q?

1. Your ability to analyse and interpret a source.
2. Your ability to make judiciously the prominence as well as the content in order to assess motive.
3. To structure your answer well with a clear focus on the question.

Remember, a source doesn't need to be truthful, accurate or impartial to be useful. Diary extracts, propaganda and political speeches may all contain manipulated versions of the truth but they are still useful in telling a historian about the opinions, values, views etc of the author.

Structure

Paragraph 1	Paragraph 2	Conclusion
1. State the ways in which the source is useful taking into account provenance and content. Give evidence to back up your points. 2. Use your own knowledge to explain why this is surprising.	1. State the ways in which the source is NOT useful taking into account provenance and content. Give evidence to back up your points. 2. Use your own knowledge to explain why this is NOT surprising.	Conclude in a few lines whether the source is largely useful or is of limited use to a historian, explain why, and in what way.
