Justice for People on the Move Gillian Brock, 2020-02-20 Offers a comprehensive framework that can assist in responding to new justice challenges for people on the move

Introducing Archaeology, Third Edition Robert J. Muckle, Stacey L. Camp, 2020-10-01 Now in its third edition Introducing Archaeology continues to be a lively and approachable textbook for introductory level students Covering traditional elements of archaeology including methods and prehistory the new edition also opens up greater conversations about the current state of archaeology discussing issues of representation inclusion and diversity in the field The authors highlight recent developments in digital and public archaeology as well as the social and political contexts of doing archaeological fieldwork A new prologue challenges common misconceptions about archaeology portrayed by mainstream media The result is a book that encourages students to critically examine the present by investigating the archaeological past The third edition features over 50 full color images and is accompanied by updated instructor materials and student resources For more information see www.introducingarchaeology.com

Teaching Big History Richard B. Simon, Mojgan Behmand, Thomas Burke, 2015 Big History is a new field on a grand scale it tells the story of the universe over time through a diverse range of disciplines that spans cosmology physics chemistry astronomy geology evolutionary biology anthropology and archaeology thereby reconciling traditional human history with environmental geography and natural history Weaving the myriad threads of evidence based human knowledge into a master narrative that stretches from the beginning of the universe to the present the Big History framework helps students make sense of their studies in all disciplines by illuminating the structures that underlie the universe and the connections among them Teaching Big History is a powerful analytic and pedagogical resource and serves as a comprehensive guide for teaching Big History as well for sharing ideas about the subject and planning a curriculum around it Readers are also given helpful advice about the administrative and organizational challenges of instituting a general education program constructed around Big History The book includes teaching materials examples and detailed sample exercises This book is also an engaging first hand account of how a group of professors built an entire Big History general education curriculum for first year students demonstrating how this thoughtful integration of disciplines exemplifies liberal education at its best and illustrating how teaching and learning this incredible story can be transformative for professors and students alike

Evolution, Morality and the Fabric of Society R. Paul Thompson, 2022-05-19 Recent interest in the evolution of the social contract is extended by providing a thoroughly naturalistic evolutionary account of the biological underpinnings of a social contract theory of morality This social contract theory of morality contractevolutionism provides an evolutionary justification of the primacy of a moral principle of maximisation of the opportunities for evolutionary reproductive success ERS where maximising opportunities does not entail an obligation on individuals to choose to maximise their ERS From that primary principle the moral principles of inclusion individual sovereignty liberty and equality can be derived The implications of these principles within contractevolutionism are explored through an examination of patriarchy individual sovereignty and copulatory choices and overpopulation and extinction Contractevolism is grounded in evolutionary dynamics that resulted in humans and human societies The most important behavioural consequences of evolution to contractevolism are reciprocity cooperation empathy and the most important cognitive consequences are reason and behavioural modification

Geomorphology of Desert Environments Anthony J. Parsons,A. D. Abrahams,2009-03-20 About one third of the Earth s land surface experiences a desert climate and this area supports approximately 15% of the planet s population This percentage continues to grow and with this growth comes the need to acquire and apply an understanding of desert geomorphology Such an understanding is vital in managing scarce and fragile resources and in mitigating natural hazards This authoritative reference book is comprehensive in its coverage of the geomorphology of desert environments and is arranged thematically It begins with an overview of global deserts proceeds through treatments of weathering hillslopes rivers piedmonts lake basins and aeolian surfaces and concludes with a discussion of the role of climatic change Written by a team of international authors all of whom are active in the field the chapters cover the spectrum of desert geomorphology

Societies Past and Present Thomas C. Burr,2025-09-24 This global and comparative history examines the evolution of human societies over many millennia illuminating patterns within societies today It shows how the original human groups bands of hunter gatherers grew over time into larger and more complex societies through three major transformations settlement and domestication the development of complexity and inequality and industrial globalization The book describes how each of these major changes in economy and political structure created new types of societies villages chiefdoms and other complex societies agrarian states and empires and today s global social system It therefore shows how different types of societies came to co exist and interact on Earth The book compares societies along seven aspects their economies political systems cultural patterns inequalities family structures demographics and environmental patterns It shows that even societies that shared similar basic features still exhibited great variety The comparative framework presented here helps readers develop a conceptual vocabulary for understanding societies the larger social systems within which they exist and the major social changes that led to this continuing expansion

Past Mistakes David Mountain,2020-11-05 A welcome ally in the fight against fake history Eleanor Janega author of The Middle Ages From the fall of Rome to the rise of the Wild West David Mountain brings colour and perspective to historical mythmaking The stories we tell about our past matter But those stories have been shaped by prejudice hoaxes and misinterpretations that have whitewashed entire chapters of history erased women and invented civilisations Today history is often used to justify xenophobia nationalism and inequality as we cling to grand origin stories and heroic tales of extraordinary men Exploring myths mysteries and misconceptions about the past from the legacies of figures like Pythagoras and Christopher Columbus to the realities of life in the gun toting Wild West to the archaeological digs that have upset our understanding of the birth of civilisation David Mountain reveals how ongoing revolutions in history and archaeology are shedding light on the truth Full of adventures and based on detailed research and interviews Past Mistakes will make you reconsider your understanding of history and of the world today Past Mistakes takes what we think we remember from history class and sets the record straight Definitely worth reading if you re ready to have your mind blown and then be filled with rage that you ve been hoodwinked for this long The Tiny Activist

Climate Change and Anthropos Linda Connor,2016-02-05 Anthropos in the sense of species as well as cultures and ethics locates humans as part of much larger orders of existence fundamental when thinking about climate change This book offers a new way of exploring the significance of locality and lives in the epoch of the Anthropocene a time when humans confront the limits of our control over nature Many scholars now write about the ethics policies and politics of climate change focussing on global processes and effects The book s innovative approach to cross cultural comparison and a regionally based study explores people s experiences of environmental change and the meaning of climate change for diverse human worlds in a changing biosphere The main study site is the Hunter Valley in southeast Australia an ecological region defined by the Hunter River catchment a dwelling place for many generations of people and a key location for transnational corporations focussed on the mining burning and export of black coal Abundant fossil fuel reserves tie Hunter people and places to the Asia Pacific the engine room of global economic growth in the twenty first century and the largest user of the planet s natural resources The book analyses the nexus of place and perceptions political economy and social organisation in situations where environmental changes are radically transforming collective worlds Based on an anthropological approach informed by other ways of thinking about environment people relationships this book analyses the social and cultural dimensions of climate change holistically Each chapter links the large scales of species and planet with small places commodity chains local actions myths and values as well as the mingled strands of dystopian imaginings and strivings for recuperative renewal in an era of transition

Human origin sites and the World Heritage Convention in Africa - N° 33 Nuria Sanz,2012 Uses examples of artistic work in all media in order to show how contemporary artists have adapted their vision in a manipulation of modern materials to satisfy mankind s needs for spiritual satisfaction through art

Reading Contemporary India MK Raghavendra,2025-02-11 The book is the first ever attempt to examine various sociocultural aspects of contemporary India ranging from caste and hierarchy and the religious or political conflict resulting from it to literary practice and intellectual life in the public space and making interdisciplinary associations It does this by going back to various aspects of India s past stretching back several millennia to those owing to public policy after independence Many of the issues today such as those named above can be traced to racial mixing through centuries which has created a multitude of conflicts that need solutions today The book is divided into separate chapters corresponding to the issues needing addressing and a brief note at the conclusion of each chapter makes connections with issues dealt in other chapters The book has an introduction tracing a significant portion of India s past and an afterword identifying crisis areas in the present

Archaeological Landscape

Evolution Mike T. Carson, 2016-06-17 Landscapes have been fundamental to the human experience world wide and throughout time yet how did we as human beings evolve or co evolve with our landscapes By answering this question we can understand our place in the complex ever changing world that we inhabit This book guides readers on a journey through the concurrent processes of change in an integrated natural cultural history of a landscape While outlining the general principles for global application a richly illustrated case is offered through the Mariana Islands in the northwest tropical Pacific and furthermore situated in a larger Asia Pacific context for a full comprehension of landscape evolution at variable scales The author examines what happened during the first time when human beings encountered the world s Remote Oceanic environment in the Mariana Islands about 3500 years ago followed by a continuous sequence of changing sea level climate water resources forest composition human population growth and social dynamics This book provides a high resolution and long term view of the complexities of landscape evolution that affect all of us today The Oxford Handbook of the Archaeology and Anthropology of Hunter-Gatherers Vicki Cummings, Peter Jordan, Marek Zvelebil, 2014-04-24 For more than a century the study of hunting and gathering societies has been central to the development of both archaeology and anthropology as academic disciplines and has also generated widespread public interest and debate The Oxford Handbook of the Archaeology and Anthropology of Hunter Gatherers provides a comprehensive review of hunter gatherer studies to date including critical engagements with older debates new theoretical perspectives and renewed obligations for greater engagement between researchers and indigenous communities Chapters provide in depth archaeological historical and anthropological case studies and examine far reaching questions about human social relations attitudes to technology ecology and management of resources and the environment as well as issues of diet health and gender relations all central topics in hunter gatherer research but also themes that have great relevance for modern global society and its future challenges The Handbook also provides a strategic vision for how the integration of new methods approaches and study regions can ensure that future research into the archaeology and anthropology of hunter gatherers will continue to deliver penetrating insights into the factors that underlie all human diversity New Perspectives in Southeast Asian and Pacific Prehistory Philip J. Piper, Hirofumi Matsumura, David Bulbeck, 2017-03-24 This volume brings together a diversity of international scholars unified in the theme of expanding scientific knowledge about humanity s past in the Asia Pacific region The contents in total encompass a deep time range concerning the origins and dispersals of anatomically modern humans the lifestyles of Pleistocene and early Holocene Palaeolithic hunter gatherers the emergence of Neolithic farming communities and the development of Iron Age societies These core enduring issues continue to be explored throughout the vast region covered here accordingly with a richness of results as shown by the authors Befitting of the grand scope of this volume the individual contributions articulate perspectives from multiple study areas and lines of evidence Many of the chapters showcase new primary field data from archaeological sites in Southeast Asia Equally important other chapters provide updated regional summaries of research in archaeology linguistics and human biology from East Asia through to the Western Pacific Mike T Carson Associate Professor of Archaeology Micronesian Area Research Center University of Guam

Introducing Archaeology Robert J. Muckle, 2014-01-01 The second edition highlights recent developments in the field and includes a new chapter on archaeology beyond mainstream academia It also integrates more examples from popular culture including mummies tattoos pirates and global warming

Theory, Practice, and Community Development Mark Brennan, Jeffrey Birdger, Theodore Alter, 2013-06-19 For many scholars the study of community and community development is at a crossroads Previously dynamic theories appear not to have kept pace with the major social changes of our day Given our constantly shifting social reality we need new ideas and research that pushes the boundaries of our extant community theories Theory Practice and Community Development stretches the traditional boundaries and applications of well established community development theory and establishes new theoretical approaches rooted in new disciplines and new perspectives on community development Expanded from a special issue of the journal Community Development Theory Practice and Community Development collects previously published and widely cited essays as well as new theoretical and empirical research in community development Compiled by the editors of Community Development the essays feature topics as varied as placemaking democratic theory and rural organizing Theory Practice and Community Development is vital for scholars and practitioners coming to grips with the rapidly changing definition of community

Anthropology Raymond Scupin, Christopher R. DeCorse, 2019-12-20 Integrating historical biological archaeological and applied approaches with ethnographic data from around the world Anthropology A Global Perspective is founded on four essential themes the diversity of human societies the similarities that tie all humans together the interconnections between the sciences and humanities and a new theme addressing psychological essentialism

On The Roof Tom Allan, 2024-08-29 A FINANCIAL TIMES BOOK OF THE YEAR 2024 An excellent beautifully written book Patrick Galbraith Sunday Times A rich and hugely enjoyable celebration of the local the vernacular and traditional a beautifully written craftsman s memoir Daily Mail What a marvellous book Full of lore information interest beautifully captured people Poetry Craig Raine Thatched roofs are like living organisms each one a web of repair replacement and alteration shaped dressed and re moulded by every pair of hands that works on it Thatching is one of the world s oldest crafts an ancient trade that roots us in nature as Tom Allan discovered when he quit an office job to become an apprentice in Devon Now a master of the trade in On the Roof he goes in search of its history and future meeting fellow thatchers from the son of a lobster fisherman who thatches with a dune grass in the Hebrides to a Syrian refugee who found peace among the seagrass roofs of Denmark to one of the first women to master Japan s 5 000 year old thatching tradition Eye opening beautifully told and revealing a tradition hand shaped over centuries On the Roof is a story of how we live with the land and how we have chosen to treat it

First Migrants Peter Bellwood, 2014-01-13 The first publication to outline the complex global story of human migration and dispersal throughout the whole of human prehistory Utilizing archaeological linguistic and biological evidence Peter Bellwood traces the journeys of the earliest hunter gatherer and agriculturalist migrants as critical elements in the evolution of human lifeways The first volume to chart global human migration and population dispersal throughout the whole of human prehistory in all regions of the world An archaeological odyssey that details the initial spread of early humans out of Africa approximately two million years ago through the Ice Ages and down to the continental and island migrations of agricultural populations within the past 10 000 years Employs archaeological linguistic and biological evidence to demonstrate how migration has always been a vital and complex element in explaining the evolution of the human species Outlines how significant migrations have affected population diversity in every region of the world Clarifies the importance of the development of agriculture as a migratory imperative in later prehistory Fully referenced with detailed maps throughout Global Environmental History Ian G Simmons,2008-03-05 Courses which deal with environmental history have long lacked a comprehensive overview I G Simmons has made a significant contribution with a book that looks at the long term history of environment and humanity from 10 000 BC to AD 2000 This far reaching text considers the global picture and recognises the contributions of many disciplines including the natural sciences the social sciences and increasingly the humanities As a starting point this book takes the major phases of human technological evolution of the last 12 000 years and considers how these have affected the natural world It then considers the response to conditions such as climate change putting today s preoccupations into a long term perspective This is a book of history not prophecy and so makes no judgements on current anxieties Archaeology of Ancient Australia Peter Hiscock,2007-12-12 Peter Hiscock presents an introduction to the archaeology of Australia from prehistoric times to the 18th century AD
