

EE Reflection Questions

Journal #1

- What progress has been made in my research/writing?
- Is my methodology sound?
- Have I made progress related to a set goal?
- What questions are emerging from my research? How might these questions change my EE topic?
- What questions are emerging from my IB subjects? How might these questions change my EE topic?
- How have these artifacts contributed to my research/writing? How might they?

Journal #2

- What have I learned about my subject area so far?
- What questions are emerging? Are these similar or different to my initial questions?
- Given the initial reading I have undertaken on the subject, is my research question appropriate for the subject I am submitting my EE in?
- Will my research question allow me to think critically about the topic I am researching? If it suggests a descriptive response, how might I need to change it to allow for more critical thinking?

Journal #3

- Do I have sufficient information to begin formulating an argument?
- If I do not have sufficient information, how will I go about resolving this? Can it be resolved?
- Given the information I have collected, do I need to reformulate my RQ?
- Has the information collected taken me in an unexpected direction?
- Do I want to change course now?

Journal #4

- What have been the high and low points of the research so far?
- Does any evidence from your research seem irrelevant or unsound?
- Are differing points of view being examined?
- Does your bibliography contain a sufficient number and range of sources?
- What skills have you developed so far that might be useful in the future?

Journal #5

- Reflect on the decisions you have made so far. What decisions were hard to make or made poorly and how have you dealt with these?
- Tell me about your mistakes and what you've learned from them. What has proven more difficult than you expected and how have you dealt with these?
- What would you do differently if you were to start this research again?

Final Journal Reflection - Looking Forward

- What obstacles might get in the way of your EE progress in the future, and how might you overcome those?
- What is your specific plan moving forward? Sketch a rough a timeline for yourself about what task you will accomplish and when.
- What do you want me (your teacher) to know about you or your work on this project at the end of the semester?
