Issues of Governance, Security, and Development in Contemporary Africa Mohamed Saliou Camara, Alem Hailu, Sabella O. Abidde, 2023-12-15 Governance security and development are three critical components of a dialectical nexus that is both dominant and determinant for any objective and fruitful quest for the understanding of the trajectory of a country a region or in the case of Africa a continent from a colonial past to a neocolonial and meta colonial present and toward a future of strategic optimal independence and self reliance That colonial past and the ensuing neocolonial and meta colonial present have made these critical components and the dialectical nexus that they form particularly challenging for the African continent For this reason Issues of Governance Security and Development in Contemporary Africa offers an in depth interdisciplinary analysis of the challenges that contemporary Africa faces within these critical areas as well as the resources and prospects that the continent possesses and can leverage to overcome the said challenges Using case studies involving a range of countries across the continent Mohamed Saliou Camara Alem Hailu and Sabella O Abidde argue that Africa needs to decolonize the terms of reference that guide its nation building statecraft and national development agenda in ways that will facilitate the establishment of viable systems of governance and security and the promotion of genuine development The Oxford Handbook of Kenyan Politics Nic Cheeseman, Karuti Kanyinga, Gabrielle Lynch, 2020-02-14 Kenya is one of the most politically dynamic and influential countries in sub Saharan Africa Today it is known in equal measure as a country that has experienced great highs and tragic lows In the 1960s and 1970s Kenya was seen as a success story of development in the periphery and also led the way in terms of democratic breakthroughs in 2010 when a new constitution devolved power and placed new constraints on the president However the country has also made international headlines for the kind of political instability that occurs when electoral violence is expressed along ethnic lines such as during the Kenya crisis of 2007 08 when over 1 000 people lost their lives and almost 700 000 were displaced The Oxford Handbook of Kenyan Politics explains these developments and many more drawing together 50 specially commissioned chapters by leading researchers The chapters they have contributed address a range of essential topics including the legacy of colonial rule ethnicity land politics devolution the constitution elections democracy foreign aid the informal economy civil society human rights the International Criminal Court the growing influence of China economic policy electoral violence and the impact of mobile phone technology In addition to covering some of the most important debates about Kenyan politics the volume provides an insightful overview of Kenyan history from 1930 to the present day and features a set of chapters that review the impact of devolution on regional politics in every part of the country Radiology in Global Health Daniel J. Mollura, Melissa P. Culp, Matthew P. Lungren, 2018-12-31 Exploring the question as to why more than half the world continues to have little or no access to medical imaging and radiology this important second edition fully revised and expanded offers not only answers but practical solutions providing new tools ideas and strategies for bringing vital radiology to low resource areas Based on RAD AID s ten years of work 2008 2018 serving indigent communities around the world the book s interdisciplinary approach offers the synthesis of business management government policy formulation clinical methods and engineering in order to integrate economic development technology innovation clinical model planning educational strategies and public health measures The gold standard title in the field Radiology in Global Health 2nd Edition is intended for a broad audience including physicians especially radiologists and radiology residents radiology technologists radiology nurses sonographers hardware software engineers policy makers business leaders researchers and public health specialists at all levels who use or implement health care services for underserved populations In addition as health care providers use radiology in the process of clinical decision making this title is also designed for clinical physicians nurses nurse practitioners physician assistants and paramedical personnel Administrators and public health personnel will also be interested as the planning of radiology services for health care systems at both the facility level and at the population level requires a clear understanding of the technological challenges and management opportunities

Expanding Tertiary Education for Well-Paid Jobs Andreas Blom,Reehana Raza,Crispus Kiamba,Himdat Bayusuf,Mariam Adil,2016-06-02 Expanding Tertiary education with quality relevance and equity is one of the most decisive challenges for Kenya s future including the achievement of the ideals of the 2010 Constitution and especially its 2030 vision which aims at transforming Kenya into a newly industrializing middle income globally competitive and prosperous country That is because tertiary education can contribute in a critical manner to successfully overcome several of the country s challenges This book provide analysis and policy recommendations to Government of Kenya tertiary education leaders and the many stakeholders on managing the massive tertiary education expansion facing the country This book first discusses the motivation for the analysis and its choice of three critical topics quality and relevance governance and student financing Secondly it reviews findings on each area and third it ends with a set of policy recommendations

Higher Education Leadership and Governance in the Development of the Creative and Cultural Industries in Kenya Akuno, Emily,Ondieki, Donald Otoyoy,2017-05-05 The role of higher education in establishing structures and procedures in society and industry is clearly articulated in scholarly discussions The narrative has recently taken a new momentum in Kenya with acknowledgement of the creative industry involves many youth as an area that impacts on the economy In unravelling the link between higher education and industry the authors focus on leadership and governance in higher education and its expected and perceived contribution to the shaping of the creative industry Through analysis of cases the authors interrogate the processes and structures that govern the teaching and practice of the creative subjects noting how these affect the creative industry in Kenya This book approaches the creative disciplines from the perspectives of the students lecturers and university administrators The three voices provide a balanced view of what higher creative arts education in Kenya is The multiple authorship of the book further provides a balanced account of the development of these disciplines in higher education and their growth in industry The key concepts here are the development of the creative industry and how higher education should contribute to the same Thus Until Emilia Ilieva, Reuben Matheka, 2025-08-04 Thus Until A History of Egerton University is a thorough historical chronological and well researched account of Egerton University from a whites only college when it started in 1939 through to the expansion it has experienced over the years culminating in being a full university More than any other university in Kenya Egerton has a long and colourful history but like all the other universities it has suffered from the political economic and financial challenges of the time especially since the double intake of the 1990s Chapter One provides the required background to the study highlighting agricultural and educational policies and steering away from the Happy Valley hype so characteristic of the period The reader will learn about the Egerton family in Chapter Two and particularly about Lord Egerton himself and the colonial circumstances within which he lived The chapter dispels some of the popularly held myths about him Chapter Three deals with the beginnings of the college and the various structural and curriculum experiments tried out and the kind of enrolment and students it experimented with as an all white establishment The chapter ends with Africans beginning to agitate for change With great attention to detail the later chapters put the university in a broader local and international context thereby increasing its relevance to society A History of Egerton University though heavily footnoted and with a detailed bibliography is written in a simple easy flowing and accessible style

Communication Rights in Africa Tendai Chari, Ufuoma Akpojivi, 2023-09-01 This ground breaking volume examines enduring and emerging discourses around communication rights in Africa arguing that they should be considered an integral component of the human rights discourse in Africa Drawing on a broad range of case studies across the continent the volume considers what constitutes communication rights in Africa who should protect them against whom and how communication rights relate to broader human rights While the case studies highlight the variation in communicative rights experiences between countries they also coalesce around common tropes and practices for the implementation and expression of communication rights Deploying a variety of innovative theoretical and methodological approaches the chapters scrutinise different facets of communication rights in the context of both offline and digital communication realities The contributions provide illuminating accounts on language rights digital exclusion digital activism citizen journalism media regulation and censorship protection of intellectual property rights politics of mobile data and politicisation of social media This is the first collection to consider communication in Africa using a rights based lens The book will appeal to researchers academics communication activists and media practitioners at all levels in the fields of media studies journalism human rights political science public policy as well as general readers who are keen to know about the status of communication rights in Africa

Effects of Engagement and Resources on Learning Outcomes in Vocational Colleges: Emerging Research and Opportunities Malechwanzi, Joseph Muthiani, 2019-08-30 A main staple of today s world that has played a key role in the development of society is education and institutions of higher learning An ongoing concern however has been the lack of access and resources to superior teaching in developing areas of the world Student engagement and learning environments are just a few elements that play into the success of colleges in areas like the Coast Region of Kenya Research must be done in understanding the correlation between the tools that these institutions are equipped with and the educational results of their students Effects of Engagement and Resources on Learning Outcomes in Vocational Colleges Emerging Research and Opportunities is an essential reference source that discusses the relationship between college resources and students learning outcomes as well as contributing factors in promoting quality education and training Featuring research on topics such as research philosophies teaching workloads and student engagement this book is ideally designed for teachers deans researchers education professionals administrators policymakers government officials and academicians seeking coverage on the methods of acquiring and maintaining quality education in developing countries

Advancing Africa's Sustainable Development Alain L. Fymat, 2018-11-14 While many African countries lag behind the rest of the industrialised world in scientific and medical research and development the situation is progressively improving This is why the Society for the Advancement of Science in Africa was established to contribute to economic advancement and sustainability through science research education and innovation This book provides a selection of papers from the Advancement of Science in Africa's fourth annual conference The conference was held under the overarching theme of science technology and innovation in Africa with several important sub themes including but not limited to improving health research and disease surveillance education collaborating in research responding to epidemic diseases with high mortality in Africa and promoting women's interest in science careers The collection illustrates how although the chapter contributors come from various countries and universities representing their own academic research they all share a common interest in advancing science technology and innovation in Africa

Higher Education and Policy for Creative Economies in Africa Roberta Comunian, Brian J. Hrac, Lauren England, 2020-11-04 The book reflects on the role of the creative economies in a range of African countries namely Ghana Kenya Nigeria South Africa and Uganda Chapters explore how creative economies emerge and can be supported in African countries The contributors focus on two key dimensions the role of higher education and the role of policy Firstly they consider the role of higher education and alternative forms of specialised education to reflect on how the creative aspirations of students and future creative workers of these countries are met and developed Secondly they explore the role of policy in supporting the agendas of the creative economy taking also into consideration the potential historical dimension of policy interventions and the impact of a lack of policy frameworks The book concludes by reflecting on how these two pillars of creative economy development which are usually taken for granted in studying creative economies in the global north need to be understood with their own specificity in the context of our selected case studies in Africa This book will be of interest to students scholars and professionals researching the creative economies in Africa across the humanities and social sciences All the royalties from the publication of this book will be donated to the not for profit organisation The

Craft and Design Institute CDI <https://www.thecdi.org.za> in South Africa supporting capacity building for young creative practitioners from disadvantaged backgrounds Facing Forward (FRENCH) Sajitha Bashir, Marlaine Lockheed, Elizabeth Ninan, Jee-Peng Tan, 2019-04-01 This book lays out a range of policy and implementation actions that are needed for countries in sub-Saharan Africa to meet the challenge of improving learning while expanding access and completion of basic education for all
