Researching Race in Education Adrienne D. Dixon, Gloria J. Ladson-Billings, Cecilia E. Suarez, William T. Trent, James D. Anderson, 2021-01-18 The question of why we need to think about how we research race demands a conceptualization of race that captures both its social construction and its temporal evolution We need both an understanding of race and clarity about how we talk about it in our design and conduct of research and in how we interpret and apply it in our findings As a field we can use research on race and racism in education to help construct social change Our purpose with this volume is to underscore the persistence of the discriminatory actions processes and the normalization of the use of race and class conditions to justify the existing and growing disparity between the quality of life and opportunity for middle class and more affluent Whites and that for people of color and people of color who live in poverty As editors of this volume we wonder what more we could learn and understand about the process and condition of race if we dare to ask bold questions about race and racism and commit to methods and analyses that respect the experiences and knowledges of our research participants and partners

Emergent Bilingual Students and Their Academic Performance John R. Slate, Clare A. Resilla, 2023-09-07 Emergent Bilinguals formerly known as English Language Learners are one of the fastest growing subgroups in the United States Their educational needs are not well met by the educational system In this book we report results of empirical multiyear studies about their reading and mathematics performance both at the elementary school and high school levels Given that state education agencies collect enormous amounts of information that are typically not well analyzed this book serves as an exemplar of secondary data analyses Educational leaders educational researchers and legislators and policymakers will find the chapters in this book useful Findings from these statewide analyses can provide readers with baselines of the performance of Emergent Bilingual students prior to the Covid 19 pandemic in reading and in mathematics Changes in instructional practices and in educational programming could be made based upon the numerous statistical results present in this book
