From Film Adaptation to Post-Celluloid Adaptation Costas Constandinides, 2010-10-21 The main corpus of film adaptation thus far has focused on films based on canonical literature From Film Adaptation to Post Celluloid Adaptation takes the next logical step by discussing the emerging modes of film adaptation from older media to new mainly focusing on the computer generated reconstructions of popular narratives and characters along with other forms of convergence such as the Internet While New Media is a broad concept the book will concentrate on the ways digital technology is being used in the encoding of films and discuss the ways this shift can be debated from a theoretical perspective Though the discussion is framed through the new media lens the work will not exclude a broader understanding of New Media which refers to video games official websites and interactivity so as to examine how the visual style of contemporary films is dispersed across and influenced by other media Discussing films like Minority Report King Kong 300 and Wanted in relation to Film Adaptation theory the work aims to challenge and rework the definition of adaptation

Steven Spielberg All the Films Arnaud Devillard, Olivier Bousquet, Nicolas Schaller, 2023-11-07 A first of its kind deep dive into Steven Spielberg's decades long career covering everything from early short films and television episodes to each of his more than 30 feature length films Organized chronologically and covering every short film television episode and blockbuster movie that Steven Spielberg has ever directed Steven Spielberg All the Films draws upon years of research to tell the behind the scenes stories of how each project was conceived cast and produced from the creation of the costumes to the search for perfect locations details about Spielberg's work with longtime collaborators like George Lucas producer Kathleen Kennedy and composer John Williams and of course the direction of some of Hollywood's most memorable scenes. Spanning more than fifty years, this book details the creative processes that resulted in numerous classic films like E.T. the Extra-Terrestrial, Jaws, Jurassic Park, The Color Purple, Schindler's List, and Saving Private Ryan to name just a few. Newer work like Lincoln, The Post, and The Fabelmans is also featured alongside awards, stats, original release dates, box office totals, casting details, and other insider scoops that will keep fans turning pages. Celebrating one of cinema's most iconic artists, Steven Spielberg: All the Films is the authoritative guide to the man who invented the Hollywood blockbuster. A Companion to Steven Spielberg Nigel Morris, 2017-02-15

A Companion to Steven Spielberg provides an authoritative collection of essays exploring the achievements and legacy of one of the most influential film directors of the modern era. Offers comprehensive coverage of Spielberg's directorial output from early works including Duel, The Sugarland Express, and Jaws to recent films. Explores Spielberg's contribution to the development of visual effects and computer games as well as the critical and popular reception of his films. Topics include in-depth analyses of Spielberg's themes, style, and filming techniques; commercial and cultural significance of the Spielberg brand; and his parallel career as a producer and collaborative projects with artists and composers. Brings together an international team of renowned scholars and emergent voices, balancing multiple perspectives and critical approaches. Creates a timely and illuminating resource which acknowledges the ambiguity and complexity of Spielberg's work and reflects its increasing importance to film scholarship. Projecting Politics Elizabeth Haas, Terry Christensen, Peter J. Haas, 2015-04-10

The new edition of this influential work updates and expands the scope of the original, including more sustained analyses of individual films from The Birth of a Nation to The Wolf of Wall Street. An interdisciplinary exploration of the relationship between American politics and popular films of all kinds, including comedy, science fiction, melodrama, and action-adventure. Projecting Politics offers original approaches to determining the political contours of films and to connecting cinematic language to political messaging. A new chapter covering 2000 to 2013 updates the decade-by-decade look at the Washington-Hollywood nexus with special areas of focus including the post-9/11 increase in political films, the rise of political war films, and films about the 2008 economic recession. The new edition also considers recent developments such as the Citizens United Supreme Court decision, the controversy sparked by the film Zero Dark Thirty, newer generation actor-activists, and the effects of shifting industrial financing structures on political content. A new chapter addresses the resurgence of the disaster/apocalyptic film genre, with particular attention paid to its themes of political nostalgia and the turn to global settings and audiences. Updated and expanded chapters on nonfiction film and advocacy documentaries, the politics of race and African American film, and women and gender in political films round out this expansive, timely new work. A companion website offers two additional appendices and further materials for those using the book in class. Encounters of the Filmic Kind Cristian, Réka Mónika, Dragon, Zoltán, 2014-07-11

Tech-Noir Paul Meehan, 2015-08-13 This critical study traces the common origins of film noir and science fiction films, identifying the many instances in which the two have merged to form a distinctive subgenre known as Tech Noir From the German Expressionist cinema of the late 1920s to the present day cyberpunk movement the book examines more than 100 films in which the common noir elements of crime mystery surrealism and human perversity intersect with the high technology of science fiction The author also details the hybrid subgenre s considerable influences on contemporary music fashion and culture
