My Life as Senior High school Student

Hi, my name is __, and I am a senior at __ High School. Let me just tell you that being a student in today's society is not always easy.

When we are young, we are often told that we don't understand what stress is and that we should wait till we're older. We, on the other hand, as adolescent students, have our own stress levels. For example, all school activities need you to maintain a good grade point average, as well as to devote any additional time you have to it day and night. This is my expectation about the Senior High school but as the pandemic strike and the cases got higher many facilities and industries affected and one of this are the schools.

Because of this new normal education, my senior high school life will be more difficult than it was before. Many students like us have failing grades because they don't know how to educate themselves, and this senior high topic will be more difficult than it was before. We only have virtual meetings with our classmates and professors, despite the fact that we have all been through a variety of experiences, we all have the ability to reach out to others in virtual way, challenges we face in every semester and years, and how we deal about our mental health. It both fascinates and frustrates me when I thinking about all the difficulties we face as a result of this pandemic. We've gone through a lifetime of hardships, and there'll be many more to come.

By witnessing this it's so hard to achieve our ideal profession and future goals for their lives, I, honestly encouraged and pushed myself simply continue following my
