

Chapter Five Reading Questions & Vocabulary

Section 5 – pgs 63-80

- 1) What is Elie's attitude towards faith now?
He refuses to try and understand why God would put His people through such torture and anguish. He feels betrayed by God.
- 2) What was Elie's decision about fasting on Yom Kippur? Why did he make that decision?
His decision was that he was going to rebel against God and his religion. He was not going to fast/ He made that decision because he thought, "Why should I thank you when you haven't done anything to get us out of this mess."
- 3) What was the "gift" the Kapos were going to give the prisoners on New Year's? They were going to make their selections and kill the weak ones.
- 4) What does Elie say a better world would be void of? Why?
Bells; they had commanded his life for so long, he never wanted to hear another bell again
- 5) The following day, what do they tell the prisoners who were chosen at the selection? Who was chosen?
They tell them to stay behind; Elie's father is chosen.
- 6) What was Elie's "inheritance" from his father? Why was his father giving it to him?
His inheritance was a knife and a spoon from his father. His father gave those items to him because they were all he had left.
- 7) What does the man in the hospital tell Elie that fills him with terror?
Selection occurs in the hospitals too, and to get out as fast as he can; this panics Elie
- 8) What happened to the patients who stayed in the hospital instead of getting evacuated?
The patients who stayed in the hospital were evacuated safely by Russian troops two days after the others left for another camp. "After the war, I learned the fate of those who had remained in the infirmary. They were, quite simply, liberated by the Russians two days after the evacuation."(82)

God on Mute Pete Greig, 2020-09-22 An honest soul searching pursuit of biblical answers to one of Christianity's most challenging questions What do you do when God meets your prayers with silence Many of us have struggled with prayers that seem to go unanswered and Pete Greig has been down that difficult road of doubt This book is both intensely personal and deeply theological a book born out of his wife Sammy's fight for her life after a horrifying diagnosis The acclaimed author of Red Moon Rising wrestles with the hard side of prayer how to respond when there seem to be no answers and how to cope with those who seek to interpret our experience for us For those struggling with prayer God on Mute brings a message of hope and comfort but also a better understanding of how we communicate with our Creator Using the timeline of Holy Week from Maundy Thursday through Easter Sunday as a template Greig explores four main questions about prayer from all angles How am I going to get through this Why aren't my prayers being answered Where is God when he seems silent When every prayer is answered what does that mean Silence in response to our most heart felt prayers is the hardest thing for a person of faith to wrestle with The world collapses Then all goes quiet Words can't explain what we're going through People avoid you and don't know what to say So you turn to Him and you pray You need Him more than ever before But somehow even God Himself seems on mute And this sinks into us with a sense of futility But even in this crushing silence there is a way forward Here is a story of faith hope and love beyond all understanding Includes guide for group discussion

Elie Wiesel's Night Harold Bloom, 2010 Collection of critical essays about Elie Wiesel's Holocaust memoir Night

Where Is God in a Messed-Up World? Roger Carswell, 2009 If God exists and really is a God of love then why doesn't he stop the suffering and problems in our world Roger Carswell is realistic enough to admit that there are things God reveals to us and things he doesn't reveal He argues that the starting point is to find out who God is and figure out if he can be trusted even if we don't have all the answers God has not only been faithful to me he has been overwhelmingly kind incredibly merciful consistently good and unbelievably patient says Roger The author's own experience of suffering with depression and other real life stories that are included make this a compassionate look at one of the toughest questions about the Christian faith Moreover our questioning need not be a barrier to entrusting ourselves to God

Encountering Transcendence Lieven Boeve, Hans Geybels, Stijn Van den Bossche, 2005 This volume consists of several contributions to a refined understanding of religious experience in view of contemporary theological epistemology Diverse sample studies taken from the extensive field of religion theology and religious studies reveal that religious experience is today clearly a pivotal issue More specifically this is made evident in modern theological hermeneutics and in the anti modern and or post modern reactions thereto the theology of world religions and inter religious dialogue the contemporary resurgence of religiosity in Western society and culture and the so called turn to religion in contemporary continental philosophy It would appear from such studies that the category of religious experience is frequently called upon to clarify or explain the phenomenon of religion and religiosity on the one hand and to support and legitimise religious positions or the critique thereof on the other Because of the loss of plausibility of tradition bound religiosity and of foundational so called onto theological schemes religious experience has come to constitute for many the last or latest point of departure and anchor for religion and religious thinking This is certainly the case with respect to tendencies within contemporary Christian traditions and theological reflection In a multitude of ways and from a variety of different perspectives religious experience and experience of transcendence or of the divine have gained a prominent place in philosophical and fundamental theological conceptual schemes In reaction to this other authors have denied the very primacy given to religious experience in reflecting upon faith pointing to the constitutive role of tradition and narrative without which there is no religious experience From all this follows that the category of religious experience is in great need of reconceptualisation not least from a theological point of view On the one hand religious experience is all too easily called upon to legitimise religious claims often against tradition and on the other hand the category has become misleading in so far as it is tainted by the modern scientific understanding of experience in reaction to which tradition is then easily invoked to protect the core of religion Both young scholars at the preceding junior conference and senior scholars during the conference s paper sessions presented from diverse perspectives new ways to conceive of religious experience in view of today s challenges of secularisation religious plurality the aestheticisation of religion etc The selected contributions have been arranged in four thematically oriented parts Approaching Religious Experience in a Postmodern Age Modern re Thinking of Religious Experience Liberating Religious Experience and Challenges for Spirituality Night - Elie Wiesel Harold Bloom, 2009 An important work on the Holocaust by a concentration camp survivor
